A GROUP OF DOCTORS who have studied the problems of the aged agreed that mandatory retirement can be harmful to elderly workers. They told a Senate subcommittee investigating the problems of the aged and aging that many of the ills of old age are psychological, caused by a feeling of being unneeded, unwanted and unloved. Shown before the Senate group are Dr. Maurice Linder, Department of Public Health of Philadelphia (left) and Murray Ferderber of the University of Pittsburgh. (UPI Telephoto)

Massachusetts Manhunt Ends In Capture Of Pair

MANHUNT ENDS. John Coyle, 24, stripped of his clothes, and covered by a jacket, is led out of the Middleboro, Mass., woods today after his capture. His brother, William, 22, was shot and later died at St. Luke's Hospital in Middleboro. The cop-killing brothers have been the object of a massive 3-day manhunt. (UPI Telephoto)

Posse Traps Brothers In Deep Woods

Accused Of Killing Philadelphia Officer And Taking Hostage

MIDDLEBORO, Mass. (AP)—The Coyle brothers, object of Massachusetts' biggest manhunt, were captured today in woods about half a mile from where they held up a liquor store Monday.

Shortly afterward at St. Luke's Hospital, William Coyle, 22, died of police bullets. His brother John, 24, was not wounded.

The brothers had fled Philadelphia after allegedly killing a policeman. They kidnaped a hostage, William Sedgwick, 49, and drove to Massachusetts in his car.

Sedgwck escaped when the gunmen fled into the woods as they were surprised by police after the liquor store job.

A posse of up to 400 men—state troopers, conservation officers, FBI agents and area police—had beaten through the woods since Monday morning.

Shortly before 9 a.m. today, police received a call from Walter Schmidt of Union City, N.J., who was visiting his mother-in-law, Victoria Canova, just off Route 28. The robbed liquor store is just up the road.

In seconds, a police car, with two troopers in it, arrived at the Canova house.

Trooper John Lacasse of New Bedford, one of the policemen who shot down young Coyle said: "We walked in the woods there and I saw them crouched down in a thicket about 25 feet away. Trooper Paul Keating, who was right beside me, yelled. They fired a shot or two at us then we fired back.

"The younger one was shot in the head."

Lacasse took two revolvers from the wounded brother.

The brothers originally were wanted for holding up a supermarket on Cape Cod last December.

On June 5, while he was patrolling his beat in North Philadelphia, Officer James F. Kane was shot down. Police learned the Coyles had an apartment nearby. In it they found many milk bottles which had been stolen from steps in the neighborhood.

The next day the brothers kidnaped Sedgwick in his own car.

The brothers have been indicted for Kane's murder. They also were charged with kidnaping.

The boys were born in Philadelphia. They are orphans. Today is the first time they ever were arrested.

West Waits Red Reaction To New Plan

Face-Saving Deal On Berlin Proposed At Geneva Parley

GENEVA (AP) — Success or failure of the Big Four foreign ministers' conference turned today on Andrei Gromyko's reaction to a new Western offer for a face-saving deal on Berlin.

The Soviet Foreign minister was to give his answer to the latest Western proposal in secret session with his opposite numbers from the United States, Britain and France.

If Gromyko says yes—or even maybe—the Geneva meeting soon may produce an agreement leading to an early East-West suummit conference. The Western price for that is an end to the Soviet threat to freeze the Allies out of West Berlin.

If Gromyko says no, the foreign ministers conference probably will end Thursday or Friday without an agreement to go to the summit. This would revive the threat of serious trouble over the future of West Berlin, surrounded by Communist territory 110 miles from West Germany.

The five-point plan representing the final Western bid for agreement was delivered to Gromyko's headquarters Tuesday night.

The heart of the proposal, Western informants said, is a provision for the Big Four to guarantee the existing arrangements on Berlin.

The West is asking the Soviets to promise to avoid any action that would menace its air, rail, and road lifelines between Berlin and West Germany.

That is less demanding wording than any used in similar proposals put to Gromyko.

The new plan drops the West's earlier insistence on a specific Soviet guarantee of the Allies' right to remain in Berlin as postwar occupation powers. It gets around the legal question of occupation rights by simply not mentioning them.

The West figures that Soviet acceptance of the plan would mean a quiet end to the Communist one-year deadline for the Western garrisons to get out of Berlin.

Navy Plane's Crew Tells Of MIGs' Attack

2, And 'Possibly 3' Red-Starred Jets Blamed In Incident

YOKOSUKA, Japan (AP) — A U.S. Navy plane crew told today how Communist MIG fighters raked their patrol plane with 15 to 20 bursts of machinegun fire and sent it limping home with two of its four engines out and one of the 14 crewmen wounded.

The airmen told a news conference two "or possibly three" Red-starred jets—their nationality still a mystery—had swooped down suddenly on the turbo-prop P4M Mercator while it was over international waters, 45 miles off the east coast of North Korea Tuesday.

The tail gun was knocked out and the gunner wounded on the second of six Communist runs before he could open fire. The plane's two other 20mm. machineguns were unable to fire because of missing parts.

The attack was broken off as the plane started to limp back to Japan. It was met by two Air Force Sabre Jet fighters that answered its call for help, but the MIGs had vanished long before.

The injured tail gunner, Aviation Electronics Mate 2.C. Donald E. Corder, 20, of Jacksonville and Farmer City, Ill., suffered more than 40 painful but not critical wounds from shrapnel and flying plexiglass. He was hit in the neck, arms and hands, and suffered a fracture of the kneecap and a head wound.

Rear Adm. Frederic S. Withington, commander of U.S. naval forces in Japan, said emphatically U.S. patrols would continue in the area.

"We are not going to admit that the sea of Japan is a Russian lake," he declared.

But the admiral said he did not plan to send fighter escorts for the patrol planes, explaining "that would be more provocative than useful."

Withington said it was the first time a Navy aircraft had been so badly damaged and still returned to base. In 11 previous brushes between Communist and American planes in the Far East, some Air Force crews have made it home, but previous Navy planes have been lost.

The admiral interrupted the news conference to read a telegram from Washington awarding the Distinguished Flying Cross to the plane's 35-year-old commander, Lt. Cmdr. Donald R. Mayer of Litchfield, Conn., for his feat in bringing his aircraft and crew back.

In Washington, the State Department denounced the Communist attack as unwarranted and vicious. A formal protest was planned as soon as it could be determined whose planes had made the attack.

Asst. Secretary of State Walter S. Robertson charged the attack had been deliberately timed to create tension at the current critical stage in the Geneva foreign ministers' conference.

2 Take Police Test

EAST PALESTINE — Two men took a municipal Civil Service examination for a police eligibility list Tuesday night at the City Hall. Results of the test were to be forwarded today to Mayor Paul Merwin by the Civil Service Commission.

Law May Bar 6 Aspirants In Fall Elections

Six candidates who won nomination for municipal office in the May 5 primaries in Wellsville, Lisbon and Salem will be barred from the Nov. 3 general election ballot under a mandatory provision of state law unless they file sworn statements of their primary campaign expenses with the County Election Board before the deadline Friday at 4 p. m.

That warning was issued today by Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the board, in another in a series of efforts to persuade the candidates to comply with the law in order that the board will not be forced to deny them ballot places.

O'Hanlon said two notices previously were mailed to each candidate and when they still failed to comply they were notified again by telephone.

He said the candidates who may bar themselves from the general election by inaction include one in Wellsville, three at Lisbon and two at Salem. In order to avoid embarrassment to the six, the board did not identify them publicly by name or party affiliation.

The law that bars a nominee from the general election for failure to report expenses is comparatively new. However, it has been in effect at least a year, O'Hanlon pointed out.

In addition, the same revised law bars a candidate from running for public office again for five years if he fails to file. This provision also affects defeated candidates who fail to report their expenses. East Liverpool has two defeated candidates who have not filed the reports.

"The Election Board has exhausted every resource at its command in an effort to get these individuals to file the 'reports," O'Hanlon remarked. The deadline for the reports falls 45 days after the primary, he added. O'Hanlon pointed out that the law makes it mandatory for the board to act in cases where the statements are not filed.

The sworn statements are required under the so-called "Corrupt Practices Act," which puts a ceiling on campaign spending. They must be filed by all candidates, whether or not they were successful, and by any committee that supported or opposed any candidate or issue.

Stanton School Bond Vote Same In Recount

The Jefferson County Board of Elections reported "no changes" resulted from a recount this morning in the Stanton Local School District's $498,000 bond issue election.

Seven residents of the district petitioned for the recount, which was completed at 11:30 a. m. at Steubenville.

The bonds were approved by a narrow margin in the special election June 2.

Weather Will Continue Cool But Without Rain

The spring "cold snap" will continue for another day at least but the weather apparently will remain fair.

The Ohio weatherman said there will be little temperature change through Thursday with today's expected ot be 68 to 72 degrees and tonight's low 50 to 55.

It will be a couple degrees "warmer" than the temperatures of the past 24 hours.

Eisenhower Sees Summit Chances Slim

Says Geneva Talks Apparently Have Reached Impasse

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today the Geneva foreign ministers talks seem to have reached an impasse, and prospects for a summit conference are no brighter.

The President told a news conference, however, that he still would be willing to go to a heads-of-government meeting if any kind of reasonable progress can be made at Geneva.

And, Eisenhower said in response to a question, that he doesn't necessarily mean there must be progress specifically on the Berlin situation.

He said he has in mind any kind of reasonable progress on East-West problems generally.

The President was asked whether he believes that prospects for a summit conference have grown dimmer in the last couple of weeks.

He replied that prospects certainly have not brightened. He said the Geneva talks seem to have reached an impasse—or at least an unreadiness for fruitful discussion.

A bit later the President was asked whether his idea of progress at Geneva is that there must be some advance toward resolving differences over Berlin.

Eisenhower said he never had meant to tie prospects for a summit conference to the Berlin situation exclusively.

He added that if the foreign ministers talks can make such progress as to result in a profitable summit conference, he would be glad to attend a heads-of-government session.

Eisenhower spoke out against any idea that the foreign ministers of the United States, Britain, France and Russia lack sufficient authority to achieve progress.

Any acceptance of such a thesis, he said, would make traditional diplomacy useless.

The news conference drew 228 reporters for Eisenhower's discussion of the Geneva talks and these other matters:

Labor Official Says Steel Strike Inevitable

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—Secretary-Treasurer William Schnitzler of the AFL-CIO says a costly steel strike is inevitable next month. He told newsmen Tuesday night: "The manner in which the steel companies have organized themselves against the welfare of their own workers makes a strike inevitable."

Manslaughter Case About Clears Docket

BEAVER — The Beaver County Court docket is about cleared with all juries excused except for two cases, one of which will go to a panel today.

The case of Samuel S. Baker of Freedom, charged with voluntary manslaughter, is expected to go to jurors. Baker was involved in a fist fight with Robert Burlett of Fair Oaks last Dec. 29 and the victim died Jan. 13, 1958, apparently from injuries.

The second case involves Vincent D'Agospino of Beaver Falls, Fred Bougher of Wadsworth, Ohio, and Kenneth Denson of Medina, Ohio, all three charged with conspiracy to committe a larceny involving an impounded truck.

Senate Okays Bill To Repeal Old Blue Law

Sunday Fishing Ban Lifted With Action; Other Moves Listed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — For 160 years, Sunday fishermen have been risking the wrath of the Ohio law. But, if you go fishing next Sunday, you will have the support of the Ohio Senate.

In the first major breach of the state's Sunday "blue law" wall, the Senate passed Tuesday and sent to the House a bill to repeal a law prohibiting Sunday fishing which antedates Ohio statehood.

A number of other moves to clip the wings of Sunday blue laws are afoot, including a couple of proposals to repeal them outright.

The Ohio Senate calendar today includes a House-approved measure to end the state's practice of issuing motor scooter operators'

Nixon Given Soviet OK For Siberian Tour

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet government has agreed to allow Vice President Richard M. Nixon to tour some Siberian cities during his good will visit to the Soviet Union next month.

Such a trip would make Nixon the highest-ranking U.S. official ever to visit this highly restricted region in peacetime. Vice President Henry A. Wallace toured Siberia briefly during World War II.

The State Department and the Soviet Embassy are now working out final arrangements for Nixon's Siberian travels as well as half a dozen other stops he wants to make in the Soviet Union.

Nixon's trip, mainly to open the American national exhibit in Moscow July 25, is being set up as a virtual tit-for-tat exchange for a visit by Deputy Soviet Premier Frol Kozlov.

A protege of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, Kozlov is tentatively due to arrive in New York June 29, ostensibly to open the Soviet trade and cultural exhibit in New York's Coliseum beinning June 30.

But he has asked to meet with President Eisehhower, and to tour industries and other sites in New Jersey, and Pittsburgh, Detroit, San Francisco, Los Angeles and a Texas city yet to be selected.

Sale Of Notes Authorized In Water Project

Wellsville Council Also Adopts List Of Streets For Repairs

Legislation for the sale of notes for financing extension of water mains to the Russel Heights area and Springhill Cemetery was adopted by Wellsville City Council Tuesday night. A list of 13 streets to be repaired in the annual program also was approved.

The ordinance provides for the issuance of $14,500 in notes in anticipation of the sale of bonds for the project. It contains an emergency clause and was adopted under suspension of rules.

R. D. McGill, city's consulting engineer, previously was hired for the project and is drawing the specifications. A fiscal agent certified the life of the project at 40 years with the maximum maturity of the bonds for the same period. Interest on the notes and bonds is not to exceed 4 per cent.

Legislation was ordered authorizing Safety-Service Director William S. Robinson to advertise for bids for repairing the streets.

Streets to be seal-coated are Highland Ave., Wood St. from 9th to 10th Sts.; 8th St., Riverside to Wood St.; 12th St., Commerce to Clover St.; Anderson Ave., 12th to 13th Sts.; Nevada St., 18th to 21st Sts., and Cemetery Rd., Lisbon St. to the cemetery gate.

A double seal-coat will be applied to Buckeye Ave. between 14th and 15th Sts. Five streets will be scarified, slagged and sealed with a compound. They are Chester Ave., Henry Ave. to 18th St.; Crawford Ave., Aten Ave. to Henry; Buckeye Ave., 6th to 7th Sts.; 11th St., White St. to Buckeye to 10th St., and 20th St., Clark Ave. to Main St.

Mayor William J. Shoub reported open house will be held at the city's new sewage treatment plant Saturday and Sunday, June 27-28, from 1 to 5 p. m. He extended an invitation to Council members and

Yoho Follows Neff In Firing

Politico's Lieutenant Linked To Road Fees

HARRISBURG, Robert Yoho, who was implicated in the Beaver County shake-down along with Samuel G. Neff, was fired today by the Department of Labor and Industry.

Yoho, who was employed in the Workmen's Compensation Fund, was let go because of charges brought by Aud. Gen. Charles C. Smith.

The dismissal was made by Willaim L. Batt, secretary of labor and industry, who held that:

"We felt that the reports of the three departments (Justice, Highways, and Labor and Industry) were such that his usefulness has been ended in the Department of Labor and Industry."

Yoho for years has been a political lieutenant of Neff, the deposed chairman of the Beaver County Democratic organization, who recently was fired from a $12,500 a year state job on the auditor general's charges that he implemented a systematic shakedown of contractors doing business with the Department of Highways in Beaver County.

Stratton Dam Worker Suffers Injury To Leg

A Dravo Construction Co. employe was hospitalized Tuesday after he was injured while at work on the new Stratton super-dam.

A clam shell swung free while he was helping lift it from a maneuvering boat and Richard Bogo, 21, of Avella, Pa., suffered a compound fracture of the right leg.

Bogo was helping raise the clam bucket from the deck of the boat for repairs when the mishap occurred shortly after 4 p.m. He is listed in "fair" condition today at the Weirton General Hospital.

Countian Nearing Goal

House Approves Wetzel's Bill To Battle Alcoholism

By DUANE E. CROFT
Review Staff Correspondent

COLUMBUS — Rep. Clarence L. Wetzel was a long stride closer today to a goal he has been working toward for 10 years.

The Ohio House of Representatives passed unanimously Tuesday his bill to set up a state program to fight alcoholism.

The measure would establish an Advisory Board in the Department of Health to recommend research and treatment programs on the causes and detection of alcoholism and the rehabilitation of sufferers of the disease.

The state director of health would be the board's chairman and the director of mental hygiene and corrections would serve as vice chairman. The other three members would be appointed by the governor with the consent of the Senate.

Wetzel started his campaign in the 1949 session of the legislature when he sponsored a move to set up a commission to study the possibilities of a state program. The commission was approved by both houses and the study was made.

He has introduced the measure to create the board in every session since then, but without success. Because the program would have been financed with liquor

Law May Bar 6 Aspirants In Fall Elections

Six candidates who won nomination for municipal office in the May 5 primaries in Wellsville, Lisbon and Salem will be barred from the Nov. 3 general election ballot under a mandatory provision of state law unless they file sworn statements of their primary campaign expenses with the County Election Board before the deadline Friday at 4 p. m.

That warning was issued today by Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the board, in another in a series of efforts to persuade the candidates to comply with the law in order that the board will not be forced to deny them ballot places.

Nixon Given Soviet OK For Siberian Tour

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet government has agreed to allow Vice President Richard M. Nixon to tour some Siberian cities during his good will visit to the Soviet Union next month.

Such a trip would make Nixon the highest-ranking U.S. official ever to visit this highly restricted region in peacetime. Vice President Henry A. Wallace toured Siberia briefly during World War II.

The State Department and the Soviet Embassy are now working out final arrangements for Nixon's Siberian travels as well as half a dozen other stops he wants to make in the Soviet Union.

Nixon's trip, mainly to open the American national exhibit in Moscow July 25, is being set up as a virtual tit-for-tat exchange for a visit by Deputy Soviet Premier Frol Kozlov.

A protege of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, Kozlov is tentatively due to arrive in New York June 29, ostensibly to open the Soviet trade and cultural exhibit in New York's Coliseum beinning June 30.

But he has asked to meet with President Eisehhower, and to tour industries and other sites in New Jersey, and Pittsburgh, Detroit, San Francisco, Los Angeles and a Texas city yet to be selected.

Sale Of Notes Authorized In Water Project

Wellsville Council Also Adopts List Of Streets For Repairs

Legislation for the sale of notes for financing extension of water mains to the Russel Heights area and Springhill Cemetery was adopted by Wellsville City Council Tuesday night. A list of 13 streets to be repaired in the annual program also was approved.

The ordinance provides for the issuance of $14,500 in notes in anticipation of the sale of bonds for the project. It contains an emergency clause and was adopted under suspension of rules.

R. D. McGill, city's consulting engineer, previously was hired for the project and is drawing the specifications. A fiscal agent certified the life of the project at 40 years with the maximum maturity of the bonds for the same period. Interest on the notes and bonds is not to exceed 4 per cent.

Legislation was ordered authorizing Safety-Service Director William S. Robinson to advertise for bids for repairing the streets.

Streets to be seal-coated are Highland Ave., Wood St. from 9th to 10th Sts.; 8th St., Riverside to Wood St.; 12th St., Commerce to Clover St.; Anderson Ave., 12th to 13th Sts.; Nevada St., 18th to 21st Sts., and Cemetery Rd., Lisbon St. to the cemetery gate.

A double seal-coat will be applied to Buckeye Ave. between 14th and 15th Sts. Five streets will be scarified, slagged and sealed with a compound. They are Chester Ave., Henry Ave. to 18th St.; Crawford Ave., Aten Ave. to Henry; Buckeye Ave., 6th to 7th Sts.; 11th St., White St. to Buckeye to 10th St., and 20th St., Clark Ave. to Main St.

Mayor William J. Shoub reported open house will be held at the city's new sewage treatment plant Saturday and Sunday, June 27-28, from 1 to 5 p. m. He extended an invitation to Council members and

Stratton Dam Worker Suffers Injury To Leg

A Dravo Construction Co. employe was hospitalized Tuesday after he was injured while at work on the new Stratton super-dam.

A clam shell swung free while he was helping lift it from a maneuvering boat and Richard Bogo, 21, of Avella, Pa., suffered a compound fracture of the right leg.

Bogo was helping raise the clam bucket from the deck of the boat for repairs when the mishap occurred shortly after 4 p.m. He is listed in "fair" condition today at the Weirton General Hospital.

Yoho Follows Neff In Firing

Politico's Lieutenant Linked To Road Fees

HARRISBURG, Robert Yoho, who was implicated in the Beaver County shake-down along with Samuel G. Neff, was fired today by the Department of Labor and Industry.

Yoho, who was employed in the Workmen's Compensation Fund, was let go because of charges brought by Aud. Gen. Charles C. Smith.

The dismissal was made by Willaim L. Batt, secretary of labor and industry, who held that:

"We felt that the reports of the three departments (Justice, Highways, and Labor and Industry) were such that his usefulness has been ended in the Department of Labor and Industry."

Yoho for years has been a political lieutenant of Neff, the deposed chairman of the Beaver County Democratic organization, who recently was fired from a $12,500 a year state job on the auditor general's charges that he implemented a systematic shakedown of contractors doing business with the Department of Highways in Beaver County.

Countian Nearing Goal

House Approves Wetzel's Bill To Battle Alcoholism

By DUANE E. CROFT
Review Staff Correspondent

COLUMBUS — Rep. Clarence L. Wetzel was a long stride closer today to a goal he has been working toward for 10 years.

The Ohio House of Representatives passed unanimously Tuesday his bill to set up a state program to fight alcoholism.

The measure would establish an Advisory Board in the Department of Health to recommend research and treatment programs on the causes and detection of alcoholism and the rehabilitation of sufferers of the disease.

The state director of health would be the board's chairman and the director of mental hygiene and corrections would serve as vice chairman. The other three members would be appointed by the governor with the consent of the Senate.

Wetzel started his campaign in the 1949 session of the legislature when he sponsored a move to set up a commission to study the possibilities of a state program. The commission was approved by both houses and the study was made.

He has introduced the measure to create the board in every session since then, but without success. Because the program would have been financed with liquor

Khrushchev Has The Inside Track

Perhaps the strongest force in the world is the wishful thinking of the American people, which has exerted historic power in two world wars in this century and now is having a powerful impact on the so-called "cold war" between the United States and the Soviet Union.

The White House, the Department of State, even Congress, must yield to the wishful thinking of the American people, when it takes the form of public opinion. The mid-20th century masters of psychological warfare, the Communist party's strategy-makers in the Kremlin, know this.

It would be a variety of wishful thinking to think they would not be both willing and able to take advantage of it. And there is good reason to believe they did take advantage in the Geneva conference of foreign ministers.

If the conference produces nothing and goes into the record as a sterile disappointment to the Western Allies, it might very well go into the record as a thumping success for the Communist conspiracy.

Nikita Khrushchev, who helps to guide the conspiracy's strategy, might think of the frustration of the other foreign ministers at Geneva by his own minister, Andrei Gromyko, as his all-time triumph.

IT IS HIS job as a leading Communist to carry out the conspiracy's credo that its most powerful weapon is the dialectics of Marxism.

Unfortunately, Westerners are not familiar with the art of dialectics. They do not take it seriously. It is hard for them to believe there really is such a thing as the art of disputation, though they know individuals who have mastered it to the point of being able to destroy an enemy by turning against him his own mental confusion and anger.

There isn't a person in the world with knowledge of Communist methods who has failed to take note of the ridiculous ease with which men and women of good will can be frustrated and confused by the dialectics of Marxists. For their purposes, a foreign ministers' conference, or better yet a summit conference, is the ultimate triumph of their technique — the thing they have practiced an ideological lifetime to bring off with a flourish.

PREMIER KHRUSHCHEV always has the inside track, because he knows exactly what he intends to do and how he will do it, whereas the other participants cannot be of one mind. The United States has been at odds with Britain and France at Geneva.

To some extent, it has been at odds with itself.

The late John Foster Dulles did not want to participate in a conference with the Soviet Union, nor did President Eisenhower. Secretary of State Herter inherited his predecessor's lack of enthusiasm, but wishful thinking — public opinion — forced the United States to participate.

The conference has been a failure from the point of view of the Western Allies. But it is no more than fair to realize, in the midst of so much wishful thinking, that it may very well have been a roaring triumph from the point of view of the Communist conspiracy.

It has demonstrated again that the Communist conspirators have the upper hand, that they can precipitate an international crisis any time they feel like it and there isn't a thing the victims of their strategy can do about it, except suffer and sputter. This time the excuse is Berlin. Next time it could be Iraq or Indo China.

Egg On The Chin Is Fashionable

It will take the experts several months of deep introspection and careful analysis to figure out what caused an egg glut to develop this spring. For everybody else it will be easy —too many eggs.

As is true these days of just about everything Americans buy for use, it isn't enough any more to buy it; they must worry about it.

As far as that's concerned, no one knows what caused an automobile glut to develop a while back — and worriers never have been given any all-around solution to that problem. There were more automobiles than customers, though. That was the main thing.

While chewing on the egg surplus and letting a little yolk stay on the chin to proclaim loyalty to a society that goes into a screaming meemy every time its members produce too much of something, there are these things to consider:

A consumer can eat just so many eggs, regardless of how low the price falls.

A producer can stay in business only as long as his long-term income is greater than his long-term costs and therefore is in trouble when he cannot control his costs.

The only egg farmers who have a chance to control their costs, in the face of federal subsidies that hold up the price of feed grains like wheat and corn, are those who can raise most of their own feed.

This is made difficult and even impossible by federal regulations, which therefore must have the effect of bankrupting marginal egg farmers and chicken farmers in general.

This will be blamed on Agriculture Secretary Benson, who will have had nothing to do with it. The blame should be placed on feather-headed legislators who do not care what happens to chicken farmers as long as the majority of grain-feed farmers stay on their side the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of the even-numbered years.

The ultimate loser in the big egg smash will be the little fellow who cannot take advantage of the tricks of the trade known to the big fellows. And who is the little fellow in the egg business? The farm wife, whose flock of chickens has been a traditional source of cash income.

When the egg glut and the fried-chicken glut that will follow it in due course are over, the casualty is going to be the farm wife who has counted on being able to sell eggs from the back door at a profit.

Blowing Up A Storm In New York

A judicial decision in New York to seal a grand jury presentment about TV quiz shows seems to be blowing up a storm. The Grand Jury Assn. of New York County, which devotes itself to battling all attempts to whittle away grand-jury powers, has stepped in to question the secrecy order. The association's president is Lee Thompson Smith, who was foreman of the famous grand jury that authorized the Thomas E. Dewey investigation of crime in the '30s and kicked up the evidence on some of the rottenest politics ever discovered in America.

That is the issue between the defenders of grand juries and those who work tirelessly to keep grand juries from breaking loose and exercising their potential power. It is whether these special juries should be permitted to ride roughshod over protected interests if they choose, or whether they should be kept barefoot, so to speak.

The grand jury that investigated the TV quiz shows thought it was called on to get to the bottom of practices that apparently had been a hoax on television audiences. It set about its job systematically for at least eight months, collecting all kinds of evidence for a presentment that would show what had gone on. Yet a single judge was able to put this presentment under lock and key; that is where the argument has been joined.

The grand jury and its defenders deny the right of the judge to do this. But critics of the grand jury system affirm the right to keep any grand jury from asserting its power. They simply do not agree with the defenders of the grand jury system that it is one of the most valuable institutions of U.S. jurisprudence. They intend to do everything in their power to keep the defenders of the system from getting big ideas about running wild and perhaps starting another Dewey investigation that would embarrass public officials and perhaps force some of them out of office, even into the hoosegow.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

The impounding and sealing of a grand jury report after nine-month probe into matter of "fixed" quiz shows has Joe Q. Citizen in a booth biting his lips and saying, "I dunno," to simple question, "What is a grand jury and why?"

The jury took months and examined 200 witnesses to investigate the sensational charges that some quiz shows were "rigged" and the jackpot question now asked by the district attorney and grand jury foreman seems to be, "Where is the aspirin bottle?" The file and forget routine has folks groggy. Can't the public get the right answer to a quiz show? (No prompting, please.)

MILLIONS OF TV ADDICTS think they have the right to know whether the contestants got the answers in advance, whether investigators or TV folks won, or if it ended in a tie. They would like to see a court give the correct answer and add a commercial for the grand jurors and district attorneys. Mortimer Topblower proposes a jackpot show with these questions:

1. Who was the author of "File and Forget," and what's so good about it in a jury verdict?
2. What is the largest river in the world and what jury foreman feels as if he's being swept down the rapids on a rubber raft?
3. Name the man who first said, "lets get to the bottom of this," and was the suggestion impounded and sealed?
4. In what year was the air conditioner invented and has it the slightest effect in the office of the district attorney today when he sees months of work go down the drain?
5. Did some witnesses in the quiz program probe clam-up and if so why a clam-up on the clam-up?
6. Who's ahead, the ex-dean of Columbia, the court or the soundproof booth builders?
7. Spell "expungeable" and define the word's effect when applied to a report filed by a jury after nine months' work.
8. In this whole matter of the honesty of quiz shows "who's on first?"

MRS. CHARLES PAYSON, Jock Whitney's sister and noted racing figure, is reported willing to help finance a new baseball club in Gotham. How would the two sports mix? Would a pitcher have to weigh in and carry extra weight if a standout? Could some hurlers claim an apprentice allowance? On the other hand, might baseball interest have effect on racing procedures? With perhaps a bullpen for nags, a change in lineup at starting gate just before the bell and a transfer of a slow plug to the Hawkeye League?

A beekeeper in New York had to abandon the business because neighbors were terrified. Big city folks who will squirm between speeding trucks, fight buses and ignore traffic lights, get goose pimples when asked to take a chance with a bee. Speaking of bees, 20,000 Georgia honeybees got loose in Grand Central Station and brought forth assurance from a bee expert that "every one had been captured or killed."

Relax, Everything's Under Control!

Rayburn Rebuffs Labor Heads

By Victor Riesel

So certain are certain congressional insiders that there will be a new labor racket-cracking bill passed this summer that they're already reckoning it will take 100 million dollars a year and a special staff of 500 agents to police the mobsters inside some unions and enforce the law.

Victor Riesel

These specialists in labor rackets would operate under the U.S. secretary of labor out of Washington and a series of regional offices across the land. But just what power the government will have to throw at the corrupt ones—a few of whom are highly placed vice presidents of key unions—no one really knows.

In effect, that's just what Walter Philip Reuther of the Auto Union and George MacGregor Harrison of the Railway Clerks Union asked Samuel Taliaferro Rayburn in the House speaker's office at about 11 o'clock June 9. Mr. Sam taught those young labor men a lesson.

FOR MOST of 40 minutes the 77-year-old watermelon-loving first citizen of Bonham, Tex. listened to the men from the proletarian North. They had asked for the appointment, not only as active labor leaders, but as the two most powerful labor Democrats. Reuther and Harrison wanted to know if it was possible for Mr. Sam to make certain that the House passed a softer bill than did the Senate.

Reports have it that Speaker Rayburn asked them what sort of bill they had in mind. The labor men talked. But to Mr. Sam it was all theory. In effect, he said how can he promise anything in this off-the-record talk if labor itself does not come up with something specific—not in the way of criticism, of which there is plenty, but in the way of a specific document.

The feeling was that Rayburn believes that there are eight or 10 forces inside labor all of whom wanted something different or special in the bill. Some, like John Lewis, want no bill. To whom does one listen? Who speaks for labor?

ONE THING, however, is as certain as wide open space in Texas—there is going to be a bill passed.

As Mr. Sam sees it, this is a Democratic Congress. The party, which he has helped lead for more than 40 years, will be blamed if after all the exposures of terror, shakedowns, dynamiting, corruption, arson and mayhem, there is no reform bill passed. There'll have to be a law. And the labor leaders will have to decide to go along.

Harrison and Reuther wanted Rayburn to promise that any bill brought out of the pro-union House Labor Committee would not be toughened on the House floor. The labor men are not worried about what will happen in committee.

The pro-labor forces there outnumber labor's critics and the neutrals by a vote of 20 to 10. What does worry the union chiefs is what would happen to the bill once it gets "out."

There are two ways to prevent such a bill from being toughened on the floor. One is to get Sam Rayburn to whip two-thirds of the House members into voting to suspend the rules.

THIS MEANS that the bill must be voted on as a unit exactly as it is read out by the committee. The other is to get a promise from Mr. Sam that he would privately get a majority of the House to kill all amendments.

At which point the speaker wanted to know just what sort of labor bill the boys had in mind. They couldn't really say. They were not talking for all labor, especially the big construction unions.

Mr. Rayburn pointed out that these unions have worked some pro-labor sections into the bill—so that it, the proposed law, no longer is just an anti-racketeering bill.

If those sections can be knocked out of the bill the Democratic chiefs will see to it that a "pure" anti-racketeering bill is passed without being "toughened" by the House.

If labor wants the bill sweetened there are those in Congress who say it's about time labor took some sour with it.

Another Good Question

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

The mental problems of Gov. Earl K. Long of Louisiana — and his insistence he doesn't belong in an asylum — turn a chilling spotlight on a far bigger but still unanswered question affecting the whole country.

How could a vice president of the United States take over from a president who became too physically or mentally disabled to carry out his duties but could not or would not admit it?

The Constitution isn't clear. The question has never been answered. In fact, Congress throughout American history has begged the question. President Eisenhower has asked Congress to provide an answer. So far it has ducked.

Long's family had him flown out of Louisiana by plane to a mental hospital in Galveston, Tex.—he says he was drugged and kidnaped—and the lieutenant governor took over, signing bills and otherwise acting as governor.

Now Long is fighting to get back inside Louisiana. If he does—even to enter a hospital—and then asserts himself as governor, who is governor: Long or the lieutenant governor? Under Louisiana law, the lieutenant governor can act only when the governor is outside the state.

But suppose a president became deranged—perhaps only slightly—but could not or would not admit it. How then could the vice president take over? Even when the president is out of the country he still is the president, and no one is authorized to step into his place.

No legal, fool-proof way has been produced yet to shove a president aside, no matter what the circumstances.

This is all the Constitution says: "In case of the removal of the president from office, or of his death, resignation, or inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, the same shall devolve on the vice president (but the Constitution doesn't say how or who decides on presidential disability) and the Congress may by law provide for the removal, death, resignation or inability, both of the president and vice president, declaring what officer shall then act as president, and such officer shall act accordingly, until the disability be removed (the Constitution doesn't say who decides this), or a president shall be elected."

So, although the Constitution clearly says Congress can lay down the method for getting a disabled president out of the White House, Congress has never done so.

The idea that Congress by a simple law could give the answer has been challenged, and on pretty good grounds: that if a vice president succeeded the president by simple act of Congress, it could be protested as unconstitutional and taken to the courts where it might face a long fight.

One way out of the dilemma would be for Congress to propose a constitutional amendment — requiring approval of two-thirds of House and Senate and three-fourths of the states — which would be far more binding than a law passed by Congress.

A Senate subcommittee has unanimously approved such an amendment — which has backing from both Eisenhower and some Democrats and Republicans. Whether it will get action in Congress this year is very uncertain.

Meanwhile, Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon made an agreement between themselves on what to do in case of Eisenhower disability. But it was based on mutual trust between these two men and has no binding effect on any future president or vice president.

For just that reason it is only a stop-gap device. Its legality has been questioned and would probably be challenged in court if it ever went into effect.

Under the agreement Nixon will decide whether Eisenhower — if unable to speak for himself — is to disabled to act as president. Then Nixon will act for him. The word act in this is important.

Nixon won't take the oath of office as president. He will not become president. He will turn the job back to Eisenhower if the latter recovers. Eisenhower, not Nixon, will decide whether the president's disability has ended.

But suppose, when Eisenhower thought his disability was over, Nixon didn't. What then? No answer.

When this agreement was announced March 3, 1958, Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas, leader of the House Democrats, became critical at once. He argued that a vice president who attempted to carry out the president's duties must take the oath of office as president and, once he has done so, the elected but ailing president is out of office.

The then Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell insisted the Eisenhower-Nixon agreement was constitutional. But the immediate dispute over its legality was a clear warning of trouble ahead if Nixon ever did take over under this agreement.

The Senate subcommittee's proposed constitutional amendment would bring the president's cabinet into the act in deciding whether he was too disabled to carry out his duties — if he couldn't or wouldn't do it himself — and then Congress would have a hand in deciding whether his disability was over, if he thought it was but the vice president disagreed.

West Losing Respect

By David Lawrence

Geneva Indecision Leaves Reds Confident

What a spectacle the Western governments are making of themselves these days as they flounder indecisively, in the midst of Soviet threats and ultimatums, seemingly afraid to meet squarely the challenging issues of the hour!

David Lawrence

For five weeks the Western governments have been pleading with the Soviet government to adjust existing differences in Europe but the only reply given was an arrogant demand for more concessions.

Sooner or later, this kind of game has to have an ending. The idea that more and more talk will somehow bring a solution has grown less and less plausible each day that the negotiations have been prolonged.

Whether a recess or an adjournment is taken or a new plan is launched for a summit meeting at which the heads of state are to go through the same talkathon, the result can only be the same — a loss of respect for the Western governments in the eyes of the other governments of the world.

For thus far the pressure has come almost entirely from the Soviets. It is the Soviet premier who has been demanding that the Western governments end their occupation of West Berlin. Not a word has come from the Western side demanding that the occupation of Eastern Europe by the Soviets be brought to an end.

IT IS THE SOVIET army which today forcibly prevents the peoples of Eastern Europe from choosing their own leaders and their own form of government. The peoples of Poland, Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria, Romania, Hungary, Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia are under the yoke of occupying armies sent into their territories by the Moscow government.

Strangely enough, the Western governments do not raise any question about that kind of occupation but seem to be willing to discuss the status of West Berlin, which the Soviets want to put under a new system of control so as to prevent the reunification of the German people.

The concept that talk brings better feeling and agreements has had many years — plus the last five weeks — to be tested.

The Western foreign ministers have been polite, reasonable, affable, talkative, resourceful and anxious to reach some kind of agreement if only they could wring from the Soviets a promise that their own legal rights to remain in West Berlin would be reaffirmed. But the Soviet government, apparently convinced that the West is in a peace-at-any-price mood, didn't budge an inch.

The theory that something might be accomplished at a summit meeting which was not achieved at a foreign ministers meeting is a myth that somehow has gained wide credence. Even as the Geneva Conference has approached its present deadlock there were some in the West who said that of course this demonstration of disagreement itself justified a summit meeting where heads of state could supposedly resolve current questions satisfactorily.

WHAT IT DID signify was that the Soviet government believed the West was so eager for any kind of agreement, even of the vaguest nature, that the British, French and Americans were willing to pledge a summit conference in exchange for some general phrase in an official communique.

The Geneva conference has served a good purpose in one respect. It has cleared the air. It has demonstrated that the Communists think they have the upper hand and that the West in due time will capitulate to their demands.

This is a kind of dangerous rationalization that has led to the outbreak of war in the past. Now the supposition is widespread that there can be no war.

If by this a nuclear war is meant, the assumption has some support in logic for history shows that a balance of power prevents national suicide by either set of belligerents. But the kind of war that could come again is what has been euphemistically termed a "conventional" or "limited" war, such as happened in Korea in 1950 and lasted three years. It still requires occupation troops on both sides of an armistice line drawn on that battleground.

ANOTHER KOREAN type of war could emerge in Europe in and around West Berlin. The Soviet rulers are reckless enough to risk it for they are slowly committing themselves to positions from which they may not feel they can retreat. The West has the strength to resist any kind of attack but the weakness in the Western position is that no appeal to the peoples of eastern Europe over the heads of the men in the Kremlin is being made.

Even as the Geneva conference dawdles along, the West has never told the peoples of the world in unequivocal terms what the basic issues are and how the peace of the world is being endangered once more by a dictatorship that doesn't deserve acceptance or recognition by free governments. For the west to agree to a summit meeting now is to forfeit its self respect.

Canine Cops

By Truman Twill

The three dogs this column helps to support are not impressed by the fascinating articles I keep reading about canine policemen, but I'm impressed.

It strikes me as inexcusable not to provide companion canines for policemen who walk beats in tough neighborhoods. I can explain the oversight only by falling back on my conviction that hoodlums and terrorists flourish in this country because too much tender regard is shown for their sensitive feelings and the rapid-fire protests of the lawyers who defend their rights.

In other words, the only thing holding back wider use of canine cops in this country is the feeling there is something unsporting about them, sort of like chasing Eliza with bloodhounds. Law-enforcement officials are afraid someone might get hurt.

Patrolmen who must round up rowdies in rough neighborhoods are afraid someone might get hurt, too, but the other way around. They are afraid some murderous punk might cut them down for sport, because he has the same advantage over them that a hunter has over a rabbit.

They would like to switch advantages by doing their own hunting with a trained dog; that is the argument in favor of augmenting police security and efficiency with canine cops.

These dogs, it must be realized, are not chosen because they are vicious. They are chosen because they can be trained to perform certain police acts on command. It is a matter of native intelligence.

Our Twillery dogs always have been handicapped in this respect by lack of intelligence on the part of their master. This is as good a time as any to make a clean breast of the matter. To train a dog, the trainer must be smarter than the pupil.

I could not meet this qualification, and consequently our dogs have trained me. There are certain commands I have been taught to obey, such as opening the door to let them out and getting the dog biscuits out of the cupboard when hunger pangs beset them.

They have trained me to protect myself when they jump on the bed to get warm on winter nights and during thunderstorms in summer. I know better than to turn on the shower without looking on the floor for a dog seeking refuge from the heat and better than to throw myself on to the davenport in the dark.

Nevertheless, even under this handicap of being the trainee instead of the trainer, I occasionally get results through the magic of what passes for pure respect between man and beast.

Khrushchev Has The Inside Track

Perhaps the strongest force in the world is the wishful thinking of the American people, which has exerted historic power in two world wars in this century and now is having a powerful impact on the so-called "cold war" between the United States and the Soviet Union.

The White House, the Department of State, even Congress, must yield to the wishful thinking of the American people, when it takes the form of public opinion. The mid-20th century masters of psychological warfare, the Communist party's strategy-makers in the Kremlin, know this.

It would be a variety of wishful thinking to think they would not be both willing and able to take advantage of it. And there is good reason to believe they did take advantage in the Geneva conference of foreign ministers.

If the conference produces nothing and goes into the record as a sterile disappointment to the Western Allies, it might very well go into the record as a thumping success for the Communist conspiracy.

Nikita Khrushchev, who helps to guide the conspiracy's strategy, might think of the frustration of the other foreign ministers at Geneva by his own minister, Andrei Gromyko, as his all-time triumph.

IT IS HIS job as a leading Communist to carry out the conspiracy's credo that its most powerful weapon is the dialectics of Marxism.

Unfortunately, Westerners are not familiar with the art of dialectics. They do not take it seriously. It is hard for them to believe there really is such a thing as the art of disputation, though they know individuals who have mastered it to the point of being able to destroy an enemy by turning against him his own mental confusion and anger.

There isn't a person in the world with knowledge of Communist methods who has failed to take note of the ridiculous ease with which men and women of good will can be frustrated and confused by the dialectics of Marxists. For their purposes, a foreign ministers' conference, or better yet a summit conference, is the ultimate triumph of their technique — the thing they have practiced an ideological lifetime to bring off with a flourish.

PREMIER KHRUSHCHEV always has the inside track, because he knows exactly what he intends to do and how he will do it, whereas the other participants cannot be of one mind. The United States has been at odds with Britain and France at Geneva.

To some extent, it has been at odds with itself.

The late John Foster Dulles did not want to participate in a conference with the Soviet Union, nor did President Eisenhower. Secretary of State Herter inherited his predecessor's lack of enthusiasm, but wishful thinking — public opinion — forced the United States to participate.

The conference has been a failure from the point of view of the Western Allies. But it is no more than fair to realize, in the midst of so much wishful thinking, that it may very well have been a roaring triumph from the point of view of the Communist conspiracy.

It has demonstrated again that the Communist conspirators have the upper hand, that they can precipitate an international crisis any time they feel like it and there isn't a thing the victims of their strategy can do about it, except suffer and sputter. This time the excuse is Berlin. Next time it could be Iraq or Indo China.

Egg On The Chin Is Fashionable

It will take the experts several months of deep introspection and careful analysis to figure out what caused an egg glut to develop this spring. For everybody else it will be easy —too many eggs.

As is true these days of just about everything Americans buy for use, it isn't enough any more to buy it; they must worry about it.

As far as that's concerned, no one knows what caused an automobile glut to develop a while back — and worriers never have been given any all-around solution to that problem. There were more automobiles than customers, though. That was the main thing.

While chewing on the egg surplus and letting a little yolk stay on the chin to proclaim loyalty to a society that goes into a screaming meemy every time its members produce too much of something, there are these things to consider:

A consumer can eat just so many eggs, regardless of how low the price falls.

A producer can stay in business only as long as his long-term income is greater than his long-term costs and therefore is in trouble when he cannot control his costs.

The only egg farmers who have a chance to control their costs, in the face of federal subsidies that hold up the price of feed grains like wheat and corn, are those who can raise most of their own feed.

This is made difficult and even impossible by federal regulations, which therefore must have the effect of bankrupting marginal egg farmers and chicken farmers in general.

This will be blamed on Agriculture Secretary Benson, who will have had nothing to do with it. The blame should be placed on feather-headed legislators who do not care what happens to chicken farmers as long as the majority of grain-feed farmers stay on their side the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of the even-numbered years.

The ultimate loser in the big egg smash will be the little fellow who cannot take advantage of the tricks of the trade known to the big fellows. And who is the little fellow in the egg business? The farm wife, whose flock of chickens has been a traditional source of cash income.

When the egg glut and the fried-chicken glut that will follow it in due course are over, the casualty is going to be the farm wife who has counted on being able to sell eggs from the back door at a profit.

Blowing Up A Storm In New York

A judicial decision in New York to seal a grand jury presentment about TV quiz shows seems to be blowing up a storm. The Grand Jury Assn. of New York County, which devotes itself to battling all attempts to whittle away grand-jury powers, has stepped in to question the secrecy order. The association's president is Lee Thompson Smith, who was foreman of the famous grand jury that authorized the Thomas E. Dewey investigation of crime in the '30s and kicked up the evidence on some of the rottenest politics ever discovered in America.

That is the issue between the defenders of grand juries and those who work tirelessly to keep grand juries from breaking loose and exercising their potential power. It is whether these special juries should be permitted to ride roughshod over protected interests if they choose, or whether they should be kept barefoot, so to speak.

The grand jury that investigated the TV quiz shows thought it was called on to get to the bottom of practices that apparently had been a hoax on television audiences. It set about its job systematically for at least eight months, collecting all kinds of evidence for a presentment that would show what had gone on. Yet a single judge was able to put this presentment under lock and key; that is where the argument has been joined.

The grand jury and its defenders deny the right of the judge to do this. But critics of the grand jury system affirm the right to keep any grand jury from asserting its power. They simply do not agree with the defenders of the grand jury system that it is one of the most valuable institutions of U.S. jurisprudence. They intend to do everything in their power to keep the defenders of the system from getting big ideas about running wild and perhaps starting another Dewey investigation that would embarrass public officials and perhaps force some of them out of office, even into the hoosegow.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

The impounding and sealing of a grand jury report after nine-month probe into matter of "fixed" quiz shows has Joe Q. Citizen in a booth biting his lips and saying, "I dunno," to simple question, "What is a grand jury and why?"

The jury took months and examined 200 witnesses to investigate the sensational charges that some quiz shows were "rigged" and the jackpot question now asked by the district attorney and grand jury foreman seems to be, "Where is the aspirin bottle?" The file and forget routine has folks groggy. Can't the public get the right answer to a quiz show? (No prompting, please.)

MILLIONS OF TV ADDICTS think they have the right to know whether the contestants got the answers in advance, whether investigators or TV folks won, or if it ended in a tie. They would like to see a court give the correct answer and add a commercial for the grand jurors and district attorneys. Mortimer Topblower proposes a jackpot show with these questions:

1. Who was the author of "File and Forget," and what's so good about it in a jury verdict?

2. What is the largest river in the world and what jury foreman feels as if he's being swept down the rapids on a rubber raft?

3. Name the man who first said, "lets get to the bottom of this," and was the suggestion impounded and sealed?

4. In what year was the air conditioner invented and has it the slightest effect in the office of the district attorney today when he sees months of work go down the drain?

5. Did some witnesses in the quiz program probe clam-up and if so why a clam-up on the clam-up?

6. Who's ahead, the ex-dean of Columbia, the court or the soundproof booth builders?

7. Spell "expungeable" and define the word's effect when applied to a report filed by a jury after nine months' work.

8. In this whole matter of the honesty of quiz shows "who's on first?"

MRS. CHARLES PAYSON, Jock Whitney's sister and noted racing figure, is reported willing to help finance a new baseball club in Gotham. How would the two sports mix? Would a pitcher have to weigh in and carry extra weight if a standout? Could some hurlers claim an apprentice allowance? On the other hand, might baseball interest have effect on racing procedures? With perhaps a bullpen for nags, a change in lineup at starting gate just before the bell and a transfer of a slow plug to the Hawkeye League?

A beekeeper in New York had to abandon the business because neighbors were terrified. Big city folks who will squirm between speeding trucks, fight buses and ignore traffic lights, get goose pimples when asked to take a chance with a bee. Speaking of bees, 20,000 Georgia honeybees got loose in Grand Central Station and brought forth assurance from a bee expert that "every one had been captured or killed."

Relax, Everything's Under Control!

Rayburn Rebuffs Labor Heads

By Victor Riesel

So certain are certain congressional insiders that there will be a new labor racket-cracking bill passed this summer that they're already reckoning it will take 100 million dollars a year and a special staff of 500 agents to police the mobsters inside some unions and enforce the law.

Victor Riesel

These specialists in labor rackets would operate under the U.S. secretary of labor out of Washington and a series of regional offices across the land. But just what power the government will have to throw at the corrupt ones—a few of whom are highly placed vice presidents of key unions—no one really knows.

In effect, that's just what Walter Philip Reuther of the Auto Union and George MacGregor Harrison of the Railway Clerks Union asked Samuel Taliaferro Rayburn in the House speaker's office at about 11 o'clock June 9. Mr. Sam taught those young labor men a lesson.

FOR MOST of 40 minutes the 77-year-old watermelon-loving first citizen of Bonham, Tex. listened to the men from the proletarian North. They had asked for the appointment, not only as active labor leaders, but as the two most powerful labor Democrats. Reuther and Harrison wanted to know if it was possible for Mr. Sam to make certain that the House passed a softer bill than did the Senate.

Reports have it that Speaker Rayburn asked them what sort of bill they had in mind. The labor men talked. But to Mr. Sam it was all theory. In effect, he said how can he promise anything in this off-the-record talk if labor itself does not come up with something specific—not in the way of criticism, of which there is plenty, but in the way of a specific document.

The feeling was that Rayburn believes that there are eight or 10 forces inside labor all of whom wanted something different or special in the bill. Some, like John Lewis, want no bill. To whom does one listen? Who speaks for labor?

ONE THING, however, is as certain as wide open space in Texas—there is going to be a bill passed.

As Mr. Sam sees it, this is a Democratic Congress. The party, which he has helped lead for more than 40 years, will be blamed if after all the exposures of terror, shakedowns, dynamiting, corruption, arson and mayhem, there is no reform bill passed. There'll have to be a law. And the labor leaders will have to decide to go along.

Harrison and Reuther wanted Rayburn to promise that any bill brought out of the pro-union House Labor Committee would not be toughened on the House floor. The labor men are not worried about what will happen in committee.

The pro-labor forces there outnumber labor's critics and the neutrals by a vote of 20 to 10. What does worry the union chiefs is what would happen to the bill once it gets "out."

There are two ways to prevent such a bill from being toughened on the floor. One is to get Sam Rayburn to whip two-thirds of the House members into voting to suspend the rules.

THIS MEANS that the bill must be voted on as a unit exactly as it is read out by the committee. The other is to get a promise from Mr. Sam that he would privately get a majority of the House to kill all amendments.

At which point the speaker wanted to know just what sort of labor bill the boys had in mind. They couldn't really say. They were not talking for all labor, especially the big construction unions.

Mr. Rayburn pointed out that these unions have worked some pro-labor sections into the bill—so that it, the proposed law, no longer is just an anti-racketeering bill.

If those sections can be knocked out of the bill the Democratic chiefs will see to it that a "pure" anti-racketeering bill is passed without being "toughened" by the House.

If labor wants the bill sweetened there are those in Congress who say it's about time labor took some sour with it.

Another Good Question

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

The mental problems of Gov. Earl K. Long of Louisiana — and his insistence he doesn't belong in an asylum — turn a chilling spotlight on a far bigger but still unanswered question affecting the whole country.

How could a vice president of the United States take over from a president who became too physically or mentally disabled to carry out his duties but could not or would not admit it?

The Constitution isn't clear. The question has never been answered. In fact, Congress throughout American history has begged the question. President Eisenhower has asked Congress to provide an answer. So far it has ducked.

Long's family had him flown out of Louisiana by plane to a mental hospital in Galveston, Tex.—he says he was drugged and kidnaped—and the lieutenant governor took over, signing bills and otherwise acting as governor.

Now Long is fighting to get back inside Louisiana. If he does—even to enter a hospital—and then asserts himself as governor, who is governor: Long or the lieutenant governor? Under Louisiana law, the lieutenant governor can act only when the governor is outside the state.

But suppose a president became deranged—perhaps only slightly—but could not or would not admit it. How then could the vice president take over? Even when the president is out of the country he still is the president, and no one is authorized to step into his place.

No legal, fool-proof way has been produced yet to shove a president aside, no matter what the circumstances.

This is all the Constitution says: "In case of the removal of the president from office, or of his death, resignation, or inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, the same shall devolve on the vice president (but the Constitution doesn't say how or who decides on presidential disability) and the Congress may by law provide for the removal, death, resignation or inability, both of the president and vice president, declaring what officer shall then act as president, and such officer shall act accordingly, until the disability be removed (the Constitution doesn't say who decides this), or a president shall be elected."

So, although the Constitution clearly says Congress can lay down the method for getting a disabled president out of the White House, Congress has never done so.

The idea that Congress by a simple law could give the answer has been challenged, and on pretty good grounds: that if a vice president succeeded the president by simple act of Congress, it could be protested as unconstitutional and taken to the courts where it might face a long fight.

One way out of the dilemma would be for Congress to propose a constitutional amendment — requiring approval of two-thirds of House and Senate and three-fourths of the states — which would be far more binding than a law passed by Congress.

A Senate subcommittee has unanimously approved such an amendment — which has backing from both Eisenhower and some Democrats and Republicans. Whether it will get action in Congress this year is very uncertain.

Meanwhile, Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon made an agreement between themselves on what to do in case of Eisenhower disability. But it was based on mutual trust between these two men and has no binding effect on any future president or vice president.

For just that reason it is only a stop-gap device. Its legality has been questioned and would probably be challenged in court if it ever went into effect.

Under the agreement Nixon will decide whether Eisenhower — if unable to speak for himself — is to disabled to act as president. Then Nixon will act for him. The word act in this is important.

Nixon won't take the oath of office as president. He will not become president. He will turn the job back to Eisenhower if the latter recovers. Eisenhower, not Nixon, will decide whether the president's disability has ended.

But suppose, when Eisenhower thought his disability was over, Nixon didn't. What then? No answer.

When this agreement was announced March 3, 1958, Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas, leader of the House Democrats, became critical at once. He argued that a vice president who attempted to carry out the president's duties must take the oath of office as president and, once he has done so, the elected but ailing president is out of office.

The then Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell insisted the Eisenhower-Nixon agreement was constitutional. But the immediate dispute over its legality was a clear warning of trouble ahead if Nixon ever did take over under this agreement.

The Senate subcommittee's proposed constitutional amendment would bring the president's cabinet into the act in deciding whether he was too disabled to carry out his duties — if he couldn't or wouldn't do it himself — and then Congress would have a hand in deciding whether his disability was over, if he thought it was but the vice president disagreed.

They would like to switch advantages by doing their own hunting with a trained dog; that is the argument in favor of augmenting police security and efficiency with canine cops.

These dogs, it must be realized, are not chosen because they are vicious. They are chosen because they can be trained to perform certain police acts on command. It is a matter of native intelligence.

Our Twillery dogs always have been handicapped in this respect by lack of intelligence on the part of their master. This is as good a time as any to make a clean breast of the matter. To train a dog, the trainer must be smarter than the pupil.

I could not meet this qualification, and consequently our dogs have trained me. There are certain commands I have been taught to obey, such as opening the door to let them out and getting the dog biscuits out of the cupboard when hunger pangs beset them.

They have trained me to protect myself when they jump on the bed to get warm on winter nights and during thunderstorms in summer. I know better than to turn on the shower without looking on the floor for a dog seeking refuge from the heat and better than to throw myself on to the davenport in the dark.

Nevertheless, even under this handicap of being the trainee instead of the trainer, I occasionally get results through the magic of what passes for pure respect between man and beast.

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO — The first heat wave of the season, with the mercury at 93, hit the East Liverpool area.

Members of the East Liverpool Ministerial Association and their families held an outing at Mill Creek Park, Youngstown.

Charles S. McVay resigned as superintendent of schools.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Safety Director James R. Hall announced that paid collection of garbage would be renewed July 1.

More than 250 high school and elementary pupils, parents and teachers conducted a tag day in the final drive for $1,500 with which to equip and improve 10 city playgrounds.

About 117 members, representing 12 societies, attended the meeting of the Young People's Christian Union of the Steubenville Presbytery at the Calcutta United Presbyterian Church.

TEN YEARS AGO — Pfc. Brian J. Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laird Johnston of St. George St., was assigned to the Cleveland Municipal Airport as a clerk-typist.

Wellsville Council 507, Knights of Columbus, elected Edward Welch grand knight.

Cited Motorist Forfeits Bond

Bert Frank Galloway, 33 of 420 E. 4th St., cited as the aftermath of a traffic mishap Friday night on St. Clair Ave. at Grant St., forfeited a $16 bond today in Municipal Court on a charge of driving left of center.

Police said Galloway was pursued to Broadway and St. Clair Ave. by Martin D. Guildoo, 50 of Canton St., Gardendale, after a crash that damaged their two cars. Guildoo charged that Galloway's auto crossed the center line and struck his auto. He pleaded innocent Saturday.

A hearing had been scheduled today for Marie Smith, 322 E. 3rd St., cited June 5 by the State Highway Patrol on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol, but an indefinite continuance was granted to permit summoning of witnesses. The woman was cited on Route 30 about 2 miles north of the city.

Glenn Arnott, 531 Harrison St., Newell, cited Monday for an illegal right turn at E. 5th and Washington Sts., forfeited a $7 bond today. J. R. Wickett of Pittsburgh forfeited $16 today on a charge of passing on the approach to a curve. He was cited at 8:20 a. m. Tuesday on Route 30 by the patrol.

Joe Wines, 23, of 406½ W. 5th St. is scheduled to appear Friday morning on a charge of crashing a traffic light at Lisbon and W. 8th Sts. He was cited at 12:10 p. m. Tuesday.

Small Fruits Day Set At Experiment Station

LISBON — Small Fruits Day will be observed Thursday at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station at Wooster and variety and weed control plots will be seen. The program will include exhibits, tours and a brief speaking, according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent.

Arrangements have been made for growers in Columbiana and Mahoning Counties, who cannot attend Small Fruits Day, to visit the station on Saturday. Robert G. Hill, small fruits research specialist, will meet the group at 1 p. m. at the fruit farm and they will be able to observe the berry plots at that time, Lower said.

Flying Object Streaks Across Nevada Skies

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—An unidentified flying object—visible to the naked eye but not to radar—streaked across Nevada skies Tuesday night.

It was the third mysterious sighting in three weeks. The Air Force said none of the objects sighted could have been planes.

Passengers' Fear Described On Highjacked Cuban Plane

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—"I was in the front, near the pilot's station, when I heard someone talking rough in Spanish," said Gabriel Hajian.

"I turned to look and I saw this dark man with dark glasses and a shiny gun."

Hajian was describing the flight of 30 terrified passengers, including several Americans, on a hijacked Cubana Airlines plane Tuesday night.

"He talked like a crazy man—fast, fast. He kept mentioning Miami to the pilot. At first the pilot shook his head, but the man put the gun close to the pilot's head. Then the pilot turned and banked the plane and the man with the gun smiled."

Women sat terrified, their hands over their eyes, during most of the 75-minute flight from Havana with the six soldiers from former Cuban President Fulgencio Batista's army in command, Hajian said.

Hajian, 26, an engineer from New Haven, Conn., said the leader, identified as Lt. Maurillo Francisco Marques-Lopez, 20, from Camaguey, kept waving the gun and looking around as if he expected someone to shoot him.

"But the closer we got to Miami —or I guess it was the farther away we got from Cuba—the calmer he got," Hajian added.

Names of other Americans aboard were unavailable.

When the plane landed at Miami International Airport, Marquez-Lopez and five others asked political asylum.

They were the third group of Cubans to hijack a plane and flee Cuba since the Batista government fell on January 1.

Firemen In Calcutta Will Buy 2 Air Packs

Calcutta volunteer firemen Monday night approved purchase of two Scott Air-Paks for smoke protection.

Members also voted approval of a standard type dress uniform to wear in parades and other events. A new siren will be purchased soon as part of a new fire alarm system.

Norman Neal, president, said landscaping has been completed on the north side of the new fire station. Firemen will sponsor a round and square dance Friday night at 9:30 in the fire station with music by George Shimley's band.

The next meeting is Monday night at 8:30.

Church Of God Group Re-Elects Rev. Boyer

ANDERSON, Ind. (AP) — The General Ministerial Assembly, policy-making body of the Church of God, re-elected the Rev. Harold Boyer of Springfield, Ohio, to a one-year term as its chairman Tuesday.

The election was held at the 71st international convention of the Church of God, attended by 20,000 persons.

They Were Only Pain In Back To Others

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Scholars might appreciate the rare books in the new Pius XII Memorial Library at St. Louis University but they were just a pain in the back to others.

While the transfer of 200,000 books was being made from the old library, one workman straining under a heavy load of priceless volumes grunted:

"Boy, they build a brand new library — you'd think they'd buy new books for it."

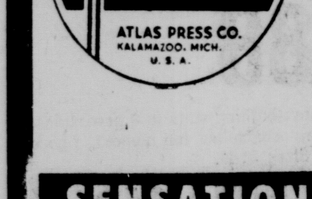
New Floor Care Ends Waxing



One of the difficult jobs of housekeeping is to wax linoleum and asphalt tile floors. Now thanks to Glaxo, it's no longer necessary to wax or scrub; just apply Glaxo about twice a year. It maintains a high lustre, non slip coating that seals out dirt. Glaxo dries in one hour and is water clear. It's cheaper than wax in the long run, besides saving a terrific amount of work, plus truly a beautiful floor.

They Were Only Pain In Back To Others

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Scholars might appreciate the rare books in the new Pius XII Memorial Library at St. Louis University but they were just a pain in the back to others.

While the transfer of 200,000 books was being made from the old library, one workman straining under a heavy load of priceless volumes grunted:

"Boy, they build a brand new library — you'd think they'd buy new books for it."

New Floor Care Ends Waxing

One of the difficult jobs of housekeeping is to wax linoleum and asphalt tile floors. Now thanks to Glaxo, it's no longer necessary to wax or scrub; just apply Glaxo about twice a year. It maintains a high lustre, non slip coating that seals out dirt. Glaxo dries in one hour and is water clear. It's cheaper than wax in the long run, besides saving a terrific amount of work, plus truly a beautiful floor.

the public. He said personnel will explain the operations and conduct tours.

In other business, Council ordered legislation authorizing Robinson to advertise for bids for cleaning and painting the million-gallon water standpipe on Highland Ave. It has been recommended for the past two years but the city never has had enough money.

Legislation was adopted to transfer $150 from the general fund to the water bond retirement fund to pay interest on bonds. The legislation was amended to take the money from the general fund rather than the water fund after Councilman J. Frederick Russell, water committee chairman, reported this was recommended by Auditor E. S. Davidson.

First reading was given an ordinance prohibiting parking on the west side of 11th St. between Commerce and Lisbon Sts. and prohibiting any parking on 12th St. between Commerce and White Sts.

Parking on the streets, near the Sterling China Co., creates a possible hazard as a fire truck cannot get through. Sterling has agreed to install sidewalks along the streets.

Legislation was ordered to reissue $75,000 in notes for a year for the storm sewer relocation project. The city holds $50,000 of the notes and $25,000 is held by the Perpetual Savings & Loan Co. of Wellsville.

Robinson was authorized to obtain estimates on the cost of extending water and sewer lines to the upper section of Aten Ave. A delegation of eight residents of the area appeared before Council. Their case was presented by Russell, who said the situation needs attention. Residents of the area presented a petition to Council in March and the problem was investigated by the water committee.

Robinson pointed out that the farthest end of the present sewer line is only about four feet under ground and the slope on the present line might not allow an extension. He said he would have to obtain an engineer's opinion.

Robinson was directed to have a street light installed on lower Commerce St. between 18th and 20th Sts. near Nicholson Stadium and another on Lincoln Ave. between 17th St. and Aten Ave. The lights had been requested earlier but it was not determined if there was enough money available.

Phillip DeSenze, 1319 Main St., was granted permission to cut 12 feet of curb at 1717 Lincoln Ave. to make a driveway.

Councilman Dominick Dash reported he has received complaints that motorists are taking a short cut after going over the 18th St. railroad crossing to get to a nearby alley. It is creating a dust, he said. They are driving over railroad property.

Paul Ice, clerk, was instructed to write the Pennsylvania Railroad asking that a barricade be put up so motorists cannot get off the street.

A petition was received from 30 residents of Clark Ave. between 18th St. and Aten Ave. asking that the street be repaired. The residents said the heavy traffic hitting the many holes in the street caused houses to vibrate.

Robinson reported he is planning on starting the repairs soon. Robinson was authorized to install a public bulletin board outside Council Chambers for financial reports from the auditor and treasurer and other Council business.

Mayor Shoub said he had checked on the possibility of obtaining a loan from the Federal Housing Loan & Finance authority about planning for extension of water lines. The project would have to procede if the loan was obtained, he said. He recommended the applications be held until the city is sure it wants to go ahead with major extensions.

Shoub also reported Sterling China officials said their 12th St. dump site will be cleaned up in about 10 days. Council had complained previously.

Councilman Richard Brown was absent. Russell gave the invocation and Councilman Ancel Moore the benediction.

tax revenues, he said, the "liquor lobbies consistently fought his proposal."

The present bill would finance the board's activities out of general fund monies. An appropriation of $240,000 is expected to be played in the appropriation bill now in the senate finance committee.

Wetzel said he is confident of Senate passage of his legislation because Gov. Michael V. DiSalle is supporting it.

The governor in his state of the state message urged the General Assembly to take some action against alcoholism.

Blaze In Chicago Fatal To 5 Children

CHICAGO (AP)—Five children burned to death today when a three-alarm blaze ripped through a four-story apartment building on the West Side.

licenses to 14 and 15-year-olds. The proposal is to limit licenses for operation of low-power scooters and motorcycles to those 16 years old and older—the same as for auto operation.

Two major bills on the legislative program of Gov. Michael V. DiSalle squeaked by in the Legislature Tuesday.

With only two votes to spare, the House passed 72-57 and sent to the Senate a bill to permit use of trust funds of the teachers', public employes' and school employes' retirement systems plus the workmen's compensation system for advance purchase of highway right-of-way.

And the Senate had only one vote to spare when it passed and sent to the House a bill to abolish about 35 rotary funds in state departments and turn the money they now hold over to the treasury. The vote was 18-11.

The rotary funds, opposed by many legislators who resent the fact they are not controlled by the General Assembly, generally represent the routine income and outgo of state departments from fees and other state charges and spending. Sen. Fred Harter (D-Summit) promised there will be legislative appropriations for the normal spending from rotary funds.

Final enactment of the bill to authorize use of trust funds for advance purchase of right-of-way would make more than 100 million dollars available—10 per cent of the aggregate capital held by the trust funds. The aim is to save the state millions of dollars through purchase of highway land before improvements run the cost sky-high.

Officials of the retirement systems have expressed reluctance to invest pension money in right-of-way purchase, even though the Highway Department would be required to redeem the investments within five years and the rate of interest would be subject to negotiation.

The Sunday blue laws became a part of Ohio lore a half dozen years before Ohio entered the union. The move to junk the Sunday fishing ban would be the first breach in the dike. Other proposals to modify or repeal other laws banning unnecessary commercial activities on Sunday are pending.

In other actions:

The Senate accepted, but the House refused to approve, a conference committee report to settle difference between the two houses on a bill to require school children to be immunized against five diseases, including polio. Another conference committee will be appointed.

The Senate also passed and sent to the House bills to:

Permit a second 44-day horse race meeting each year at tracks in counties of more than 700,000 population to permit River Downs track in Cincinnati to meet Kentucky competition.

Permit transfer of racing permits from one track to another.

Permit revocation of state-issued licenses upon an advertiser's conviction for false and fraudulent advertising.

Create a three - member state-county car-marking and uniform commission to standardize them for all 88 county sheriffs by 1961.

The Senate also virtually completed legislative action on a bill which would make sheriff's deputies called to duty in another county eligible for workmen's compensation if injured in the line of duty.

The House completed passage of a Senate bill to declare Columbus Day a legal holiday in Ohio.

The House passed and sent to the Senate bills to:

Create an advisory board to study causes and treatment of alcoholism.

Allow general health districts to regulate air pollution.

The Senate, by unanimous vote, put on next November's statewide ballot a proposed constitutional amendment to lift the present 50 per cent limit on cities' sales outside their boundaries of water and sewer services.

Sen. William Baker (D - Montgomery) asserted the limit should be raised to give cities the opportunity to entice industry to nearby locations with promises of plentiful water.

The Senate defeated a proposed amendment by Sen. Fred L. Hoffman (R-Hamilton) which would have given the Legislature power to establish reasonable rates if cities try to gouge their suburban neighbors.

The House Elections - Federal Relations Committee recommended for passage a DiSalle-backed bill to create a State Department of Industrial and Economic Development.

The House Organization of State Government Committee recommended for passage a Senate-approved bill to establish a state motto: "With God All Things Are Possible."

House Eyes County Officials Pay Raise

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio House today has under consideration a Senate-approved bill to increase the salaries of county officials.

The increases—give or take $50 a year—amount to about 10 per cent of the present pay.

The pay raises, none of which could be effective until county officials start new terms, would have these ranges from the smallest to the largest counties in the state:

Auditor, $4,000 minimum to $11,550 maximum.
Treasurer, $4,000 to $11,550.
Sheriff, $3,650 to $10,800.
Clerk of Courts, 4,000 to $11,550.
Recorder, $3,650 to $10,800.
Commissioner, $2,650 to $10,800.
Prosecutor, $3,300 to $13,650.
Engineer, $5,950 to $13,650.
Coroner, $800 to $10,600.

The increases hang around the 10 per cent mark in the counties of smaller population, but the bill creates new categories in the larger counties—those about 400,000 population. Increases in the new groups range up to 35 per cent of present salaries.

Chief imports of Russia are metals and machinery.

Miss Jeannette M. Allmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Tice, 853 Armstrong Ln., became the bride of Leroy Lee Nease, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hilbert Wright, 1412 Sunnyside Ave., Pleasant Heights, on Saturday evening, June 6, at 6 o'clock in the Oakland Free Methodist Church.

The double-ring ceremony, before an altar setting of roses and peonies with wedding bells suspended on streamers, was performed by the Rev. Harold Mitchell, pastor of the New Brighton Free Methodist Church.

Mrs. Gertrude Hulse presented traditional nuptial music and Mrs. Ruby Rutter sang "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a white ballerina-length gown of nylon fashioned with a fitted bodice. The bouffant skirt featured rows of ruffles and lace over crinoline and a large bow provided back accent.

Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a crown of lilies-of-the-valley. A maternal heirloom locket was tied to her blue garter and she carried an arrangement of red roses and white carnations with satin streamers on the white Bible belonging to her cousin, Miss Lorraine Seevers.

Miss Linda Lee Tice of Freedom, a cousin, was the maid of honor and wore a fuchsia ballerina-length gown fashioned with a fitted bodice of seed pearls. A matching crown and veil and a corsage of white rosebuds, completed her attire.

Miss Jeannette M. Allmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Tice, 853 Armstrong Ln., became the bride of Leroy Lee Nease, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hilbert Wright, 1412 Sunnyside Ave., Pleasant Heights, on Saturday evening, June 6, at 6 o'clock in the Oakland Free Methodist Church.

The double-ring ceremony, before an altar setting of roses and peonies with wedding bells suspended on streamers, was performed by the Rev. Harold Mitchell, pastor of the New Brighton Free Methodist Church.

Mrs. Gertrude Hulse presented traditional nuptial music and Mrs. Ruby Rutter sang "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a white ballerina-length gown of nylon fashioned with a fitted bodice. The bouffant skirt featured rows of ruffles and lace over crinoline and a large bow provided back accent.

Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a crown of lilies-of-the-valley. A maternal heirloom locket was tied to her blue garter and she carried an arrangement of red roses and white carnations with satin streamers on the white Bible belonging to her cousin, Miss Lorraine Seevers.

11 Attend Meeting Of Mission's Board

Eleven members attended the meeting of the Board of Trustees at the Community Rescue Mission Monday night.

Delmas Sanford, president, conducted business when tentative plans were made for the annual banquet in September.

The Rev. Robert Farwell, superintendent, gave the financial report for April and May.

Mr. And Mrs. Robert White Now 'At Home' In Crestvue

Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. White are receiving friends in a newly-furnished home at Crestvue Pl., following their marriage May 16 in the Longs Run United Presbyterian Church.

She is the former Miss Janet Backus, daughter of Mrs. Effie Backus of Parkway Ave., and the late Virgil Backus, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert White of the Sprucevale Rd.

The double - ring ceremony was performed before an altar setting of palms, white floral arrangements and seven - branch candelabra by the Rev. Robert Fogal, pastor, in the presence of the families and friends.

Mrs. Claire Unrue presented a half - hour of traditional music and Mrs. Paul Pugh sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Virgil Backus, and wore a white ballerina - length gown fashioned with a Basque lace bodice, scoop neckline and cap-sleeves.

Her shoulder - length veil was attached to a headband formed of tiny bows and petals. She wore elbow - length gloves and carried a white Bible with a quilted cover, a gift of the bridegroom's mother. It was covered with an arrangement of white roses, lily-of-the-valley and bridal wreath along with satin streamers tied with lovers knots.

Mrs. Marlene Brenner was matron of honor and appeared in a poudre-blue ballerina - length gown with matching headband and ruffled nylon mitts.

Mrs. Alice Backus, sister - in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Mary Woodling were bridesmaids in identical gowns of pink and mint with matching headbands and ruffled mitts. They wore the bride's gifts of cultured pearl necklaces and carried nosegay bouquets of American beauty roses.

Ronald White served as his brother's best man and Donald Woodling was an usher.

The bride's mother chose a blue lace dress with white accessories and a corsage of red and pink rosebuds. The mother of the bridegroom wore a poudre blue suit with white accessories and a pink rosebud corsage. Mrs. Ida Jones, the bridegroom's great - grandmother, was attired in black with white accessories and a red rose corsage.

A reception was held in the social rooms. A three - tier cake topped with a miniature bridal couple centered the buffet table with lighted white tapers and flowers completing the setting.

Aides were Mrs. Kenneth Zimmerman, aunt, and Mrs. Odessa Burns, great - aunt of the bridegroom.

MRS. R. D. WHITE
Bride Of Marriage Of May 16.

The bride is a 1959 graduate of East Liverpool High School.

Her husband is a 1956 graduate and is employed at the Homer China Laughlin China Co. He is a member of the Army Reserves.

She wore a print dress with matching accessories and her bridal corsage for her going - away costume. The honeymoon was spent at Lake Erie.

Out - of - town guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Cashell and family and Mr. and Mrs. James Brenner, all of New Kensington, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Zimmerman and family and James Zimmerman of Jamestown, Pa.

Tolson-Lafferty Wedding Held In Salineville Church

Ferns, palms and candelabra formed the setting at the Salineville Church of Christ June 7 for the marriage of Miss Judith Tolson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tolson of Monroe Heights, to John Lafferty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lafferty of Salineville.

Donald Archer, minister, performed the double ring ceremony. Miss Janet Kaye Leishman played a half-hour recital of organ music and Mrs. James Higgins, soloist, sang.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a four-tiered gown of hand clipped Chantilly lace, fashioned of tulle ruffles over a satin skirt with a lace chapel train. The basque bodice featured a standup wing collar above a nylon tulle yoke, embroidered with sequins and long pointed sleeves.

A fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a matching gown decorated with irridescent sequins and seed pearls. She wore her mother's wedding band and a penny in her shoe. She also wore pearl earrings, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a white Bible with an arrangement of ivy, nosegay and white orchid with satin streamers.

Miss Yvonne Tolson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore an aqua dress with a cummerbund waistline and matching headpiece and veil.

Bridesmaids were Miss Linda Raffle, friend of the bride, and Miss Grace Lafferty, sister of the bridegroom. Their maize colored organza dresses also featured cummerbund waistlines and matching headpieces and veils.

MRS. JOHN LAFFERTY
Bride Of June 7 Rites.

All carried colonial bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums.

Miss Sharon Skinner, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a maize colored dress and a corsage of yellow chrysanthemums and scattered petals from a straw basket.

Wayne Madison was best man. Kenneth Tolson, brother of the bride, and Frank Lafferty, brother of the bridegroom.

Robert Eish, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

The bride's mother wore a powder blue lace sheath dress and pink accessories with a corsage of pink rosebuds. The mother of the bridegroom wore a beige dress with white accessories and a corsage of red rosebuds.

Miss Sally Gamble registered the guests. Aides at a reception afterward were Mrs. Olive Earl, Mrs. Joseph Eish, Mrs. Floyd Skinner and Mrs. Kenneth Tolson.

For traveling, the bride wore a powder blue two-piece linen dress with beige accessories and her bridal bouquet. Following a trip through Virginia, the couple is residing at 631 E. 9th St., Salem.

Guests attended from Carrollton, Salem, East Liverpool, Pittsburgh, Martins Ferry, Chester, Irondale, Sebring, Minerva and Toronto.

Actor Clifton Webb Told To Take Rest

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Doctor's orders have forced Clifton Webb to step out of a movie role.

The 62-year-old actor was ordered to take an extended rest at home after he was hospitalized over the weekend. The nature of his ailment was not announced.

Webb will be replaced by James Mason in the 20th Century-Fox science fiction film "Journey to the Center of the World."

Suit Asks $38,000

LISBON — Ronald V. Haines Jr. of Alliance filed suit for $38,000 Tuesday against Chalmer Eakins of Beloit R. D. 1, claiming personal injuries in a traffic crash June 19, 1958, on Route 62 near Alliance. Haines was a passenger in a car driven by Joseph Heacock allegedly struck by the Eakins auto, according to the Common Pleas Court petition.

Beaver TB Society Clarifies X-Ray Use

The Beaver County Tuberculosis Association today reported it has received numerous telephone inquiries about its X-ray services.

Miss Elma C. Graham, executive director, said that X-ray examination is for detection of early stages of TB and other respiratory disease symptoms.

Out of a group of 13,592 X-rays studied, some 353 abnormalities were discovered, including 75 suspected of TB, 23 lung tumors, 159 with enlarged hearts and 96 other deformities. Persons are immediately notified and urged to contact their family doctor about any abnormalities, she said.

Free X-ray clinics for adults are held the fourth Thursday of each month in the basement of the Rochester General Hospital. Others are held in various communities on designated days.

Former City Girl Is Bride Of Ohio Wesleyan Nuptials

Miss Jill Shanks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Shanks of Zelienople, former local residents, became the bride of Donald S. Eliot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eliot of Delaware, Ohio, on June 6 in the Memorial Chapel of Ohio Wesleyan University.

She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Earl Wolfe, 962 Railroad St., and Mrs. Elizabeth Shanks of Ridge Ave., Wellsville.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. James B. Stephenson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Delaware, before an altar banked with palms, ferns, white carnations and snapdragons.

Mrs. John Doyle presented nuptial music at the organ and accompanied Albert Cinelli of New York City, who sang, "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of embroidered nylon sheer over taffeta, fashioned with short shirred sleeves, fitted bodice and a full bouffant skirt ending in a chapel train.

A crown of orange blossoms and seed pearls held her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She wore a single strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom, and carried a cascade bouquet of eucharias lilies.

MRS. D. S. ELIOT
She Was Formerly Jill Shanks.

Miss Jane Seiberling of Zelienople, was maid of honor and wore a street-length dress of pink silk organza, featuring a Schiffli embroidered bodice and full skirt. She wore a half-hat of rosette circles, pink organza petals and seed pearls holding a small circular veil and carried a cascade bouquet of "happiness" roses and candy carnations.

Miss Mary Etta Stover of Zelienople and Miss Marilyn Hopl of Cleveland were bridesmaids and wore dresses identical to that of the maid of honor. They carried bouquets of "better-time" roses.

Judith and Susan Williams of Chicago, nieces of the bridegroom, were flower girls and appeared in dresses of white organdy over pink taffeta.

Kenneth Ludwig of New York, a fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was best man and ushers were Jack Shanks, brother of the bride, Samuel Jones of Aspinwall and David Walker of Marion.

Dennis Adkins of East Liverpool, cousin of the bride, served as acolyte.

Mrs. Shanks chose an aqua chiffon dress with matching accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a Navy blue eyelet dress with white accessories. Both wore pink cybidium orchid corsages.

A reception was held at the Alpha Xi Delta house. A three-tier cake topped with a Colonial bouquet of white roses and carnations centered the buffet table. Aides were Mrs. Robert Adkins of East Liverpool, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Donald Williams of Chicago, sister of the bridegroom.

They are 1959 graduates of Ohio Wesleyan. The bride is a member of Alpha Xi Delta Sorority and her husband belongs to Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity.

They will reside in Columbus where the bride will teach speech in a district secondary school and he will enter graduate school at Ohio State University to continue studies in speech therapy.

Selling Without Permit, McKeesport Man Fined

A McKeesport man was taken into custody by East Liverpool police Tuesday afternoon, accused of selling aluminum siding from door-to-door without a city permit.

Identified as Herbert H. Stein, he was fined $25 and costs when arraigned shortly afterward before Municipal Judge George L. Brokaw. However, $15 of the fine was suspended.

Stein was arrested at 2:42 on Midway Ln. by Patrolman Charles Winters, police said.

County Motorist Cited In Route 558 Mishap

William McCall, 23, of Columbiana R. D. 2 was cited Tuesday afternoon following an auto collision on Route 558 three miles west of East Fairfield.

The State Highway Patrol at Lisbon charged McCall with failure to halt for a stop sign after his car hit one operated by Vera Cook, 40, of Leetonia R. D. 2. Damage was minor, officers said.

Accidentally Hanged

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—An 8-month-old girl was accidentally hanged Tuesday, police said, when she apparently tumbled off the top of a bunk bed and caught her head between the bed and a wall. The dead child, Lynn Theresa White, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry White who live in a trailer camp here.

Miss Jill Shanks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Shanks of Zelienople, former local residents, became the bride of Donald S. Eliot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eliot of Delaware, Ohio, on June 6 in the Memorial Chapel of Ohio Wesleyan University.

She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Earl Wolfe, 962 Railroad St., and Mrs. Elizabeth Shanks of Ridge Ave., Wellsville.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. James B. Stephenson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Delaware, before an altar banked with palms, ferns, white carnations and snapdragons.

Mrs. John Doyle presented nuptial music at the organ and accompanied Albert Cinelli of New York City, who sang, "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of embroidered nylon sheer over taffeta, fashioned with short shirred sleeves, fitted bodice and a full bouffant skirt ending in a chapel train.

A crown of orange blossoms and seed pearls held her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She wore a single strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom, and carried a cascade bouquet of eucharias lilies.

Miss Jane Seiberling of Zelienople, was maid of honor and wore a street-length dress of pink silk organza, featuring a Schiffli embroidered bodice and full skirt. She wore a half-hat of rosette circles, pink organza petals and seed pearls holding a small circular veil and carried a cascade bouquet of "happiness" roses and candy carnations.

Miss Mary Etta Stover of Zelienople and Miss Marilyn Hopl of Cleveland were bridesmaids and wore dresses identical to that of the maid of honor. They carried bouquets of "better-time" roses.

Judith and Susan Williams of Chicago, nieces of the bridegroom, were flower girls and appeared in dresses of white organdy over pink taffeta.

Kenneth Ludwig of New York, a fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was best man and ushers were Jack Shanks, brother of the bride, Samuel Jones of Aspinwall and David Walker of Marion.

Dennis Adkins of East Liverpool, cousin of the bride, served as acolyte.

Mrs. Shanks chose an aqua chiffon dress with matching accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a Navy blue eyelet dress with white accessories. Both wore pink cybidium orchid corsages.

A reception was held at the Alpha Xi Delta house. A three-tier cake topped with a Colonial bouquet of white roses and carnations centered the buffet table. Aides were Mrs. Robert Adkins of East Liverpool, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Donald Williams of Chicago, sister of the bridegroom.

They are 1959 graduates of Ohio Wesleyan. The bride is a member of Alpha Xi Delta Sorority and her husband belongs to Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity.

They will reside in Columbus where the bride will teach speech in a district secondary school and he will enter graduate school at Ohio State University to continue studies in speech therapy.

Selling Without Permit, McKeesport Man Fined

A McKeesport man was taken into custody by East Liverpool police Tuesday afternoon, accused of selling aluminum siding from door-to-door without a city permit.

Identified as Herbert H. Stein, he was fined $25 and costs when arraigned shortly afterward before Municipal Judge George L. Brokaw. However, $15 of the fine was suspended.

Stein was arrested at 2:42 on Midway Ln. by Patrolman Charles Winters, police said.

County Motorist Cited In Route 558 Mishap

William McCall, 23, of Columbiana R. D. 2 was cited Tuesday afternoon following an auto collision on Route 558 three miles west of East Fairfield.

The State Highway Patrol at Lisbon charged McCall with failure to halt for a stop sign after his car hit one operated by Vera Cook, 40, of Leetonia R. D. 2. Damage was minor, officers said.

Accidentally Hanged

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—An 8-month-old girl was accidentally hanged Tuesday, police said, when she apparently tumbled off the top of a bunk bed and caught her head between the bed and a wall. The dead child, Lynn Theresa White, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry White who live in a trailer camp here.

Nicaragua Fears Invasion From 2 Other Directions

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (AP)—New invasion threats from two directions were reported Tuesday night by President Luis Somoza, whose government has just finished off a group of rebels that invaded Nicaragua two weeks ago.

The 37-year-old president, whose family has ruled this Central American republic for 23 years, said one new set of invaders is based in Honduras and consists of about 50 men.

He was not certain whether it had actually crossed Nicaragua's northern border and sent units of his well trained army to check.

The other group is getting ready to strike with about 200 men from neighboring Costa Rica, probably in about two weeks, Somoza said.

He said the Honduras-based group is under the command of Rafael Somarriba, a Nicaraguan National Guard lieutenant 10 years ago. Somoza charged it was formed and trained in Cuba of mercenaries from several Caribbean countries.

He claimed both groups contain members of the Caribbean Legion, an outfit purportedly dedicated to the overthrow of dictatorships. The contingent in Honduras, he charged, is financed by Communists and armed by Prime Minister Fidel Castro's government.

Somoza said the Costa Rican group is at Santa Elena Bay, near the border of Nicaragua. He charged that force is backed by Marcial Aguiluz, a Costa Rican congressman.

Costa Rica was the base for the rebels who invaded Nicaragua earlier this month. The president said one member of that force had been killed and 105 captured. Four are unaccounted for.

Hearing Opens On Plea For Gas Rate Increase

Hearing began before the West Virginia Public Service Commission today at Charleston on a gas rate increase request affecting 49,000 customers in and near West Virginia's Northern Panhandle, including Hancock County.

Manufacturers Light & Heat Co. is seeking PSC approval of new rates designed to increase annual revenue by $2,057,000. A portion of the rate boost — enough to cover increased charges by Manufacturers' pipeline suppliers — already has been put into effect on an interim basis with PSC approval.

As to the over-all increase, the company said it is needed to bring Manufacturers' rate of return up to 6.75 per cent.

Drowns In Quarry

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A 15-year-old boy drowned Tuesday night at a stone quarry on a farm 13 miles southeast of here, where he had gone for a swim with a companion. The victim was Gerald Mikloski. The boy's companion, Ralph Wood, 17, tried to drag him to shore, but had to give up 10 yards from safety.

Iowa has nearly 95 per cent of its total acreage in farmland.

Moore's Ex-Aide Partially Cleared

WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressional aide was cleared Tuesday of one count of a three-count indictment charging him with preparation and distribution of unsigned campaign literature in West Virginia last year.

But U. S. District Judge David A. Pine held that Keith H. Jaques, former aide to Rep. Moore, 1st District Congressman,, must answer to the remaining two counts.

Judge Pine's decision to acquit Jaques on the second count of the indictment — charging him with distributing the campaign pamphlets — came as the government rested its case.

The pamphlets were described in earlier testimony as carrying the title of "United Miners Journal." Witnesses told the jury the publication was made to look as similar as possible to the United Mine Workers' Journal, in an apparent effort to create the impression that the union was opposing Robert H. Mollohan in last year's campaign.

The government contends the names of those who put up the money for the pamphlets were deliberately omitted in order to perpetrate a "hoax." He said the union supported Mollohan.

Results Unchanged In Hancock Election

No changes resulted from a canvass of ballots cast in Hancock County's school election of May 19 made by county commissioners Monday night in New Cumberland.

Residents approved an additional 50 per cent levy for a broad improvement program by a vote of 2,153 to 1,279.

The canvass was completed by Commissioners William C. Graham of Grant District, Lyle Virden of Clay District, and D. N. Thomas of Butler District.

Commissioners will meet June 25 to conclude business for the fiscal year.

Out Of The Air

By JOHN CROSBY

This Realm, This New York

PARIS

Much as I love this beautiful city, I cannot escape the feeling, which is more forcible than ever this year, that it is on the outer periphery of the arts, that, in fact, all of Europe is.

John Crosby

Back when all Gaul was divided into three parts, all roads led to Rome. Today the lines lead clearly back to New York, a statement that will lead to some outraged howls.

It's a feeling you get whether you are talking to Frenchmen in the arts or to Americans living abroad. The center of their universe is New York, which is the headquarters of the world's theater, the world's music, much of the world's literature, and increasingly of its art.

I don't mean to say necessarily that the writers and the artists are all collected in New York or even that they are Americans, because they aren't.

What I mean is that New York is the headquarters.

THAT'S WHERE you go for acceptance of your play or your book or in a lesser sense your picture. That's where the decisions are made so that your book or your play or your music is called great (or not so great).

If you open big in New York, the play is likely to expand outward to London, Paris, Madrid. (You find even a lightweight piece of malarkey like "Tunnel of Love" in Madrid, which hasn't much theater.) New York's the place — whether you like it or not — which blows the whistle on you.

In ancient times, Romans used to get away from it all, too — the crowds, the pressures of Rome — and build pleasant villas in Spain (whose ruins are still evident). But, of course, they had to go back to Rome to get promoted. Or to educate the children.

"After all, we don't want him to be raised as a Spaniard," I can just hear some Roman matron saying.

"Little Octavius won't speak a word of Latin. He thinks in Spanish, that child. But he's a Roman and we want him to appreciate it. So back to Rome it is. I hate the thought of trying to find servants. I understand there isn't a decent cook in all Italy. And the prices!"

-:-

SO WENT the refrain then and so it still goes. It's wonderful to live in this lovely city. But what do they think of my pilot film on Madison Ave.? (Or in Beverly Hills?)

"The book'll be published in October. Then back to New York," says the expatriate author. "Jack Paar and all those cocktail parties — and, of course, the reviews. It's a bore."

Or: "That lousy foreign editor cut my Khrushchev analysis down to three paragraphs and stuck it back with ship news. Doesn't that idiot realize that was the most important interpretive piece I've written all year?"

Whether he realizes it or not, idiot or otherwise, the foreign editor is in New York and he's the boss. And so is the book publisher. So is CBS upon which the little package producer who has the nice apartment in Montparnasse and the French wife is so hopelessly dependent. And so is Radio City Music Hall, the ultimate destination of the movies being shot all over Europe.

Even where the box offices are in Europe, the bankers and 20th Century - Fox are in America.

ALL THESE THINGS add up to this strong feeling that Paris and Rome and Madrid are the outer ramparts, the colonies (though that will be ferociously resented), the tread rather than the hub of the wheel.

Julius Caesar deep in Gaul, wondering what sort of shenanigans were going on back in the Roman Senate, who was trying to cut his throat, went through mental processes not much different from those of the TV producer who heard Hubbell Robinson had been unseated at CBS — and wondered what this meant to the adventure series he's shooting in Europe.

This has created an odd situation.

In Europe today there is a huge pool of what you might call American remittance men of the arts. Because of the vicious inequities of the tax laws, particularly its terrible discriminations against writers, we are driving creative people out of America to Europe where they can get a little tax relief, mostly writing in or acting in or producing or directing movies, but also writing novels or producing TV series or painting pictures.

There always have been expatriate artists and writers, including some very good ones. But the new kind of expatriate writer is a different article from, say, Henry James, who went to England because he felt more at home there. James went to England because he felt it WAS the center of the universe and he belonged there.

TODAY the John Hustons and Yul Brynners are in Europe mainly to get some relief from a tax system that is so unfairly rigged against artists and in favor of anyone in business.

James wrote about life in English country houses because that was his chosen field of battle among the people he chose to write about. Today's writers move to Paris (apart from the tax angle) almost in the spirit of moving to Westport on a somewhat larger scale.

Navy Offers Tuition For Nursing Students

Recruiters at City Hall said today the Navy will pay for the last year's tuition, books, room and board for qualified future Navy nurses if they now are students in a course leading to a bachelor's degree in nursing.

Women who enroll will be given a substantial pay check each month until graduation and then will be commissioned as Navy ensigns, the recruiters announced. Further information is available at the recruiting station, operated by Chief Petty Officer Edwin Pease and Petty Officer 1C Frank L. Thompson.

Palestine Due 'Double Time' In September

EAST PALESTINE — Council took no action on revising the extension of Daylight Saving Time through October when the city Ministerial Association Monday night failed to send a representative to Council to explain a requested earlier return to Standard Time.

School authorities advised Council the schools will return to "slow" time in September.

Council received a letter from the ministers two weeks ago asked the city return to Standard Time the last Sunday in September. Council last fall approved an ordinance extending "fast" time through October.

No representative of the association attended the meeting as requested by Council to explain the need for an earlier return to slow time.

However, a letter was received from the Board of Education explaining the schools will return to slow time in September, and requesting Council to have the city follow.

Council took no action on the request, and will not meet again in regular session until Sept. 8. Last fall the schools returned to Standard Time early while the city was on fast time during October.

Council approved a 1960 budge of $72,168—an increase of abou $4,000 over 1959, due to salary increases approved for members of the 1960 Council, auditor and treasurer.

Cooncilmen, who expect a balance of $14,000 from this year and revenue of $62,000 next year, anticipated a deficit of around $10,000 under the new budget.

Council plans to request a meeting with the City Park Commission for an explanation of a recent ruling prohibiting the sale of season tickets to the City Park pool to anyone residing outside the school district.

Councilmen said they feel the ruling "discriminatory," and believe an increased price may be asked from out-of-town residents, but they should not be denied such tickets.

A request for the sale of a city-owned lot in the west end of town, to the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4579 as the site of a new post home was referred to the finance committee.

Carmen Chick of the post asked the W. Main St. lot be surveyed and appraised in preparation for the sale. The property is now a vacant part of the old City Park used for storage of utility poles.

Jockey Fined For Lack Of Sticker On Auto

A Wheeling jockey was fined and two other motorists forfeited bonds Monday for traffic violations at hearings before Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland.

John Vero, 36, was fined $10 and costs for lack of an inspection sticker on his auto. He was cited with four other horse racing personnel Monday morning on Route 66 near Waterford Park by Hancock County sheriff's deputies.

NAACP Figure Cites Anti-Negro Feeling In North

CLEVELAND (AP)—The north is being infected by anti-Negro prejudices exported from the south, Thurgood Marshall, chief legal counsel of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, (NAACP) said here Tuesday night.

"The body of prejudice is in the south, but its tentacles are reaching all through the north," he said in addressing the annual dinner meeting of the community relations committee of the Jewish Community Federation.

"People in the north say the poor Negroes of Mississippi can't vote and it's a shame about Little Rock," Marshall continued. "But when you talk to these people about having a Negro living next to them they say it's a different problem. . . .

"I'd hate to win the battle in the south and find that we've lost it in the north."

Marshall said there is less residential segregation in Little Rock than in Cleveland or New York.

Cuban Inmates Riot, Demanding Amnesty

HAVANA (AP) — Inmates in crowded old Principe Prison rioted for four hours Tuesday demanding an amnesty they said Prime Minister Fidel Castro had promised common criminals. Police reinforcements ringed the prison walls and held the prisoners at bay with gunfire.

Interior Minister Jose Navarro promised to consider an annesty as well as demands that prisoners be removed from old gungeons.

Jaycee Board Clears Business For Yearend

The newly elected and outgoing Junior Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors cleared year-end business at a meeting Monday night at the Chamber of Commerce office.

A report was heard on all projects. Charles Shriver, retiring president, was given a vote of thanks and commended for his work during the past year.

Named to an auditing committee were Robert Donaldson, retiring treasurer, Russell Hall, incoming treasurer, Shriver and W. Edward Adkins, newly elected president.

Adkins reported the new board will meet July 6.

Out Of The Air

By JOHN CROSBY

This Realm, This New York

PARIS

Much as I love this beautiful city, I cannot escape the feeling, which is more forcible than ever this year, that it is on the outer periphery of the arts, that, in fact, all of Europe is.

John Crosby

Back when all Gaul was divided into three parts, all roads led to Rome. Today the lines lead clearly back to New York, a statement that will lead to some outraged howls.

It's a feeling you get whether you are talking to Frenchmen in the arts or to Americans living abroad. The center of their universe is New York, which is the headquarters of the world's theater, the world's music, much of the world's literature, and increasingly of its art.

I don't mean to say necessarily that the writers and the artists are all collected in New York or even that they are Americans, because they aren't.

What I mean is that New York is the headquarters.

THAT'S WHERE you go for acceptance of your play or your book or in a lesser sense your picture. That's where the decisions are made so that your book or your play or your music is called great (or not so great).

If you open big in New York, the play is likely to expand outward to London, Paris, Madrid. (You find even a lightweight piece of malarkey like "Tunnel of Love" in Madrid, which hasn't much theater.) New York's the place — whether you like it or not — which blows the whistle on you.

In ancient times, Romans used to get away from it all, too — the crowds, the pressures of Rome — and build pleasant villas in Spain (whose ruins are still evident). But, of course, they had to go back to Rome to get promoted. Or to educate the children.

"After all, we don't want him to be raised as a Spaniard," I can just hear some Roman matron saying.

"Little Octavius won't speak a word of Latin. He thinks in Spanish, that child. But he's a Roman and we want him to appreciate it. So back to Rome it is. I hate the thought of trying to find servants. I understand there isn't a decent cook in all Italy. And the prices!"

-:-

SO WENT the refrain then and so it still goes. It's wonderful to live in this lovely city. But what do they think of my pilot film on Madison Ave.? (Or in Beverly Hills?)

"The book'll be published in October. Then back to New York," says the expatriate author. "Jack Paar and all those cocktail parties — and, of course, the reviews. It's a bore."

Or: "That lousy foreign editor cut my Khrushchev analysis down to three paragraphs and stuck it back with ship news. Doesn't that idiot realize that was the most important interpretive piece I've written all year?"

Whether he realizes it or not, idiot or otherwise, the foreign editor is in New York and he's the boss. And so is the book publisher. So is CBS upon which the little package producer who has the nice apartment in Montparnasse and the French wife is so hopelessly dependent. And so is Radio City Music Hall, the ultimate destination of the movies being shot all over Europe.

Even where the box offices are in Europe, the bankers and 20th Century - Fox are in America.

ALL THESE THINGS add up to this strong feeling that Paris and Rome and Madrid are the outer ramparts, the colonies (though that will be ferociously resented), the tread rather than the hub of the wheel.

Julius Caesar deep in Gaul, wondering what sort of shenanigans were going on back in the Roman Senate, who was trying to cut his throat, went through mental processes not much different from those of the TV producer who heard Hubbell Robinson had been unseated at CBS — and wondered what this meant to the adventure series he's shooting in Europe.

This has created an odd situation.

In Europe today there is a huge pool of what you might call American remittance men of the arts. Because of the vicious inequities of the tax laws, particularly its terrible discriminations against writers, we are driving creative people out of America to Europe where they can get a little tax relief, mostly writing in or acting in or producing or directing movies, but also writing novels or producing TV series or painting pictures.

There always have been expatriate artists and writers, including some very good ones. But the new kind of expatriate writer is a different article from, say, Henry James, who went to England because he felt more at home there. James went to England because he felt it WAS the center of the universe and he belonged there.

TODAY the John Hustons and Yul Brynners are in Europe mainly to get some relief from a tax system that is so unfairly rigged against artists and in favor of anyone in business.

James wrote about life in English country houses because that was his chosen field of battle among the people he chose to write about. Today's writers move to Paris (apart from the tax angle) almost in the spirit of moving to Westport on a somewhat larger scale.

Navy Offers Tuition For Nursing Students

Recruiters at City Hall said today the Navy will pay for the last year's tuition, books, room and board for qualified future Navy nurses if they now are students in a course leading to a bachelor's degree in nursing.

Women who enroll will be given a substantial pay check each month until graduation and then will be commissioned as Navy ensigns, the recruiters announced. Further information is available at the recruiting station, operated by Chief Petty Officer Edwin Pease and Petty Officer 1C Frank L. Thompson.

Council received a letter from the ministers two weeks ago asked the city return to Standard Time the last Sunday in September. Council last fall approved an ordinance extending "fast" time through October.

No representative of the association attended the meeting as requested by Council to explain the need for an earlier return to slow time.

However, a letter was received from the Board of Education explaining the schools will return to slow time in September, and requesting Council to have the city follow.

Council took no action on the request, and will not meet again in regular session until Sept. 8. Last fall the schools returned to Standard Time early while the city was on fast time during October.

Council approved a 1960 budge of $72,168—an increase of abou $4,000 over 1959, due to salary increases approved for members of the 1960 Council, auditor and treasurer.

Cooncilmen, who expect a balance of $14,000 from this year and revenue of $62,000 next year, anticipated a deficit of around $10,000 under the new budget.

Council plans to request a meeting with the City Park Commission for an explanation of a recent ruling prohibiting the sale of season tickets to the City Park pool to anyone residing outside the school district.

Councilmen said they feel the ruling "discriminatory," and believe an increased price may be asked from out-of-town residents, but they should not be denied such tickets.

A request for the sale of a city-owned lot in the west end of town, to the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4579 as the site of a new post home was referred to the finance committee.

Carmen Chick of the post asked the W. Main St. lot be surveyed and appraised in preparation for the sale. The property is now a vacant part of the old City Park used for storage of utility poles.

Jockey Fined For Lack Of Sticker On Auto

A Wheeling jockey was fined and two other motorists forfeited bonds Monday for traffic violations at hearings before Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland.

John Vero, 36, was fined $10 and costs for lack of an inspection sticker on his auto. He was cited with four other horse racing personnel Monday morning on Route 66 near Waterford Park by Hancock County sheriff's deputies.

NAACP Figure Cites Anti-Negro Feeling In North

CLEVELAND (AP)—The north is being infected by anti-Negro prejudices exported from the south, Thurgood Marshall, chief legal counsel of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, (NAACP) said here Tuesday night.

"The body of prejudice is in the south, but its tentacles are reaching all through the north," he said in addressing the annual dinner meeting of the community relations committee of the Jewish Community Federation.

"People in the north say the poor Negroes of Mississippi can't vote and it's a shame about Little Rock," Marshall continued. "But when you talk to these people about having a Negro living next to them they say it's a different problem. . . .

"I'd hate to win the battle in the south and find that we've lost it in the north."

Marshall said there is less residential segregation in Little Rock than in Cleveland or New York.

Cuban Inmates Riot, Demanding Amnesty

HAVANA (AP) — Inmates in crowded old Principe Prison rioted for four hours Tuesday demanding an amnesty they said Prime Minister Fidel Castro had promised common criminals. Police reinforcements ringed the prison walls and held the prisoners at bay with gunfire.

Interior Minister Jose Navarro promised to consider an amnesty as well as demands that prisoners be removed from old gungeons.

New Highway Engineer Cited At County Fete

About 150 attended a dinner at the Valley Golf Club near Columbiana Tuesday night when William P. McKenna of Lisbon was honored as the new acting division engineer in charge of Division 11 of the State Highway Department.

Everett S. Preston, Ohio director of highways, was speaker at the event sponsored by the county Democratic executive committee.

Preston discussed highway matters in the area, including the top priority Lake Erie-Ohio River Rd., and said summer plans call for all state roads in Columbiana to be hard-surfaced by fall.

Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, county Democratic chairman, was toastmaster. Jimmy Welsh of Columbus, native of Wellsville and deputy director of administration for the highway department, and Robert Wallace, executive secretary, spoke briefly. State Sen. Arthur Blake of Martins Ferry attended.

McKenna of 328 E. Chestnut St., Lisbon, succeeds John Hagan, who has been named engineer of planning at Columbus.

A native of Summitville, McKenna was graduated from Salineville High School, and attended Heidelberg College at Tiffin before entering the Air Force in World War II. He was graduated from Case Institute of Technology at Cleveland in 1950 and became an engineer-in-training at the highway department office at New Philadelphia.

McKenna later worked for a private consulting firm and operated his own survey and mapping concern. He was appointed engineer of construction in February. He is married and has four children.

Irondale

About 56 members of the John James family attended a picnic Tuesday night at Thompson Park in East Liverpool.

Family members were present from Bayard, N.M., Weirton, Irondale, Hammondsville and Toronto.

Mrs. Pauline Paisley is a patient in South Side Hospital in Youngstown.

Mrs. Beula Hanlin is visiting with her son and family Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hanlin, of Akron.

Mr. and Mrs. George Billie and daughter, Jan, and Mr. and Mrs. Tim Billie attended a reception Saturday in honor of Harold Engelbaugh of Youngstown who just received his medical degree from Marquette University in Milwaukee.

Miss Susan Weals of Columbus is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Henderson.

Dave Davis is helping at the Boy Scout camp at Clendenning Lake for the next five weeks.

A surprise party was held Saturday evening in honor of Miss Janice Allen on her 12th birthday anniversary at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Earl Allen.

Games were played. Nancy Wickham won the prize. Some 22 attended.

Miss Alice Hickman and Mrs. Margaret Pool visited Sunday with Mrs. Clemmie Burris of Smithfield.

Mrs. Mary Hicks and Mrs. Annie Roberts visited the past week with their brother and family, Hubert James, of Struthers.

Young GOP Meets

DENVER (AP)—An estimated 1,000 delegates were expected to register today at the opening session of the National Young Republicans convention. The convention ends Sunday. Vice President Richard Nixon will address a dinner meeting of the organization Friday night.

Dunham Elected Post Commander

Leroy Dunham was elected commander of Lawrenceville American Legion Post 163 Monday night. He replaces Charles Huffman.

Others elected were Huffman, first vice commander; Harold Waide, second vice commander; Robert Shroades, finance officer; Charles Laughlin, adjutant; Graven Lyle, service officer.

John Grimes, sergeant-at-arms; Victor Reed, chaplain; Bill Melott, publicity officer; Paul Gill, judge advocate, and Andrew Rowand, historian.

Delegates named to the state convention July 25-26 at Parkersburg were Huffman, Melott and Lyle. Alternates are Robert Shroades, Waide and Mont Shroades.

It was announced Huffman has been appointed to the state membership committee. Lunch was served by Dewey Price and Waide.

Jury Awards Liberace $22,400 In Libel Suit

LONDON (AP) — A high court jury awarded American entertainer Liberace 8,000 pounds ($22,400) damages today in a libel suit against the London Daily Mirror.

The jurors—10 men and 2 women—decided after 3½ hours of deliberation that a story in 1956 by Mirror columnist William N. Connor implied that the pianist was a homosexual.

The implication was untrue, the jury held, and the phraseology used by Connor in the column was not fair comment, as claimed by the Mirror.

Board Delays Step To Slice School Area

LISBON—The Columbiana County Board of Education Tuesday night delayed action on certifying to the county election board a requested vote in the Fairfield-Waterford School District on a proposed dissolution of the district.

Election board officials yesterday certified to the school board the validity of the petition from the Fairfield - Waterford district, following a survey of the signers.

The election board report showed the petitions have 59 more signatures of qualified voters than the 761 minimum number required to have the question placed on the November election ballot.

Petitioners seek to dissolve the district, with Fairfield Township pupils going to Columbiana schools and Unity Township pupils attending East Palestine schools. A majority vote would be required to approve the proposition.

Board members indicated the certification of the ballot move is almost mandatory on their part, but decided to wait to see what stand the Fairfield-Waterford board of education will take at its scheduled meeting tonight.

The board received a letter from the Student Council of the Fairfield - Waterford District, requesting the board "to do all in its power to keep the school district intact."

Deadline on certifying the ballot request to the election board is July 21. The board scheduled a special meeting July 14.

County Supt. James McBride authorized to hire a psychologist for the 1959 term under the special education program in which the state will pay $6,535 towards the salary of such personnel.

A three-year contract was approved for Lorin Ruff, elementary consultant, at the existing salary of $7,250. Ruff has been with the county system as an administrator since 1950, having taught in the county previously.

Supt. McBride reported one school bus will be turned over to the Wellsville School district when the Hillcrest area merger becomes effective around July 1. Two other buses of the transferred school area will be retained by the Southern Local District, he said.

The board authorized a letter to Columbiana County commissioners to learn why the county has not paid $514 for office equipment purchased for the county education office two months ago. An attorney general's opinion indicates county commissioners are responsible for such purchases.

191 Children Attend Free Methodist Camp

Approximately 191 children registered at the camp of the Pittsburgh Conference of the Free Methodist Church Monday at the campgrounds in Dixonville.

The camp, is under the direction of the Rev. John E. Lee of Fairmont, W. Va. The Rev. R. A. Maxwell of Akron, director of children's organizations of the Ohio Conference of the denomination, is chaplain. The Rev. C. Howard Canon of the Oakland church is dean of instruction.

The staff is comprised of 30 workers. Sessions end Saturday.

Wellsville Kiwanians Hear Kent Professor

The establishment of an education center at East Liverpool was outlined by Prof. F. Leslie Speir, director of extension services at Kent State University, at a meeting of the Wellsville Kiwanis Club Tuesday night at Piatt's Tea Room.

He reviewed the various courses to be given and told of the college credits a student can earn. Twenty-one were present.

Speir was introduced by Tom Grafton, program chairman. Atty. Delmar T. O'Hara, president, presided.

Post 4 'Buy American' Move Approved By District Legion

The "Buy American" resolution initiated by American Legion Post 4 received approval of the 10th District over the weekend at Coschocton and now goes before the Ohio Legion convention, John Rippeth advised the post Monday night.

The post launched a movement to protect American industry and jobs from further foreign competition in 1958 and the resolution was approved successively through the county, district and state levels but was lost in committee at the national conventions.

Rippeth, former County Council and retiring Post 4 commander, said the resolution was approved by the resolutions committee and then adopted by the convention at Coshocton.

Rippeth will now take it before state Legionnaires at Cleveland July 17-19 with approval expected. It will go on to the national sessions late in August at Minneapolis, for which Rippeth will be an alternate.

Carl Turk, new commander of the post, announced appointments to standing committees for his term of a year. The chairmen or co-chairmen include:

L. J. Vorndran and David Sakol, house; D. G. Wilkinson, Americanism; C. D. McCullough and Joseph Reed, service officer, and Boys State, G. William Brokaw and Ross Jackson.

A letter of appreciation was read from Mrs. John Dulles in answer to condolences from the post over the death of the secretary of state.

There was no Sunday in China 50 years ago. Now they observe one day of the week as a day of rest.

Monongahela Power's Valuation Increased

Valuation for tax purposes of the Monongahela Power Co. was increased by $1 million — from $67 million to $68 million—by the West Virginia Board of Public Works at Charleston Monday. Monongahela serves Hancock County and other parts of the Panhandle.

The board made rapid progress at the first session setting final 1959 valuations on a number of electric, gas and water companies. Categories still awaiting action when the board reconvened today included railroads, bus companies and airlines.

Utilities' property tax bills are figured by applying county tax levy rates to the valuations set by the board. Tentative 1959 valuations recommended by the Tax Department totaled $867,844,000 for 382 utilities, an increase of $9,138,000 over the final 1958 figure.

Falls On Glass Cut 2 Persons

A Wellsville boy and a city woman hurt in falls on glass were treated Tuesday night at City Hospital where six other adults and youngsters received treatment after separate mishaps yesterday.

Darryl West, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell West, 476 14th St., Wellsville, suffered a laceration of the right knee from glass while playing at the Central Playground.

Ethel Ladzinske of Fisher Ave. was treated last night for a laceration of the wrist received when she fell through a window pane at home.

Joseph Winters, 138½ W. 4th St., was treated last night for a laceration of a finger suffered on an electric saw at home.

While helping at a farm, James Anderson, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson of East Liverpool, received a finger injury when his hand was caught in a conveyor belt.

Gerry Howell, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Howell of Union St., received a laceration of the scalp in a fall last night.

While at work at the New Castle Refractories at Newell, Harold Boggs of Henry Ave. Ext., Wellsville, suffered first degree burns of the arms and face yesterday morning.

Paul Buzzard of Grimms Bridge Rd., employe of the Homer Laughlin China Co., was treated yesterday morning for an injured left wrist received in a fall at work.

Charles Hanlon, 34, of Shadyside Ave. suffered a bruise of the elbow when it bumped against a tilted mailbox as he was driving along Shadyside Ave. yesterday morning with his arm out the window.

Referendum On Wheat Will Be Held July 23

The national wheat marketing quota referendum will be held July 23, not July 25, the Beaver County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee said today in correcting the date.

Marketing quotas for the 1960 wheat crop have been proclaimed by the secretary of agriculture, as required by legislation whenever the available supply of wheat is more than 20 percent above the normal supply. However, quotas will not become effective unless they are approved by at least two-thirds of the producers voting in the referendum.

If quotas are approved for the 1960 wheat crop, it will mark the seventh consecutive year they have been used for wheat. Wheat quotas and acreage allotments apply only in the 39 so-called "commercial" wheat states, including Pennsylvania and Ohio.

County Doctors Hear Infant Surgery Aired

Surgical treatment of congenital malformations in newborn babies was reviewed by Dr. Thomas Boles of Children's Hospital at Columbus at a meeting of the Columbiana County Medical Society Tuesday night at the Hotel Wick at Lisbon.

About 26 physicians attended the session at which comprehensive brochures listing mental health resources in the state and area were distributed.

The brochures were prepared by Mrs. Marilyn Solak of the county education office under the authorization of the county Mental Health Association with the approval of the society.

Dr. William Kolozsi of Salem, president, was in charge. The next meeting will be in September.

Tropical Storm Beulah Off Coast Of Mexico

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Tropical storm Beulah hovered off the Mexican coast in the early hours amid predictions it would move inland into Mexico later today.

The second storm of the season carried winds of 65 miles an hour near its center.

The Weather Bureau indicated earlier conditions were such that intensification to hurricane force was possible.

The Weather Bureau's warning bulletin located Beulah about 200 miles south of Brownsville, Tex., moving at four to eight miles an hour.

Deaths and Funerals

Family Suffers Second Death

Mrs. Clara Cloran Wilhelm of Ft. Wayne, Ind., a former resident of East Liverpool, died suddenly Tuesday night at 9 at City Hospital, apparently of a stroke. She was 70.

Mrs. Wilhelm became ill at the Dawson Funeral Home about 5 p. m. while completing funeral arrangements for her sister, Mrs. Anna Cloran Judge, who died yesterday morning.

She was born in Reedsville, Ohio, daughter of the late Michael and Alice Stainthorpe Cloran, and resided at Ft. Wayne for 37 years. She left East Liverpool in 1922.

She leaves her husband, W. C. Wilhelm; a son, Dr. Raymond F. Wilhelm, and a daughter, Mrs. Lucille Reising, all of Ft. Wayne, and another son, Robert Wilhelm of Tucson, Ariz.; a brother, Francis J. Cloran of East Liverpool, and 10 grandchildren.

The body will be returned to Fort Wayne late today.

Meanwhile, services for Mrs. Judge, 1507 St. Clair Ave., will be held Friday at 9 a.m. at St. Aloysius Catholic Church. Burial will be in St. Aloysius Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday.

Rade Zivkovich

Rade (Paso) Zivkovich, 1142 Ohio Ave., Midland, a retired steelworker, died at his home Tuesday at 1:20 a. m. after a long illness. He was 75.

He was born July 1, 1883, in Yugoslavia and was formerly employed in the transportation department of the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co. He was a member of the St. George Serbian Orthodox Church of Midland.

Services will be held Thursday at 2 p. m. at the church by Fr. Milorad Dobrota. Burial will be in Beaver Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Schwerha Funeral Home in Midland.

Charlie Lacey

Services for Charlie Lacey, who died Monday night in the Beaver County Home Hospital, will be held Thursday at 2 p. m. at the Leavell Funeral Home by the Rev. J. M. Marbrey of the Midland First Baptist Church.

Burial will be in Oak Grove Cemetery in Industry Township.

Friends may call at the Midland funeral home after 7 tonight.

Ken Schinkel of Springfield, Mass., led the American Hockey League's individual scorers last season with 43 goals.

Falls On Glass Cut 2 Persons

A Wellsville boy and a city woman hurt in falls on glass were treated Tuesday night at City Hospital where six other adults and youngsters received treatment after separate mishaps yesterday.

Darryl West, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell West, 476 14th St., Wellsville, suffered a laceration of the right knee from glass while playing at the Central Playground.

Ethel Ladzinske of Fisher Ave. was treated last night for a laceration of the wrist received when she fell through a window pane at home.

Joseph Winters, 138½ W. 4th St., was treated last night for a laceration of a finger suffered on an electric saw at home.

While helping at a farm, James Anderson, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson of East Liverpool, received a finger injury when his hand was caught in a conveyor belt.

Gerry Howell, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Howell of Union St., received a laceration of the scalp in a fall last night.

While at work at the New Castle Refractories at Newell, Harold Boggs of Henry Ave. Ext., Wellsville, suffered first degree burns of the arms and face yesterday morning.

Paul Buzzard of Grimms Bridge Rd., employe of the Homer Laughlin China Co., was treated yesterday morning for an injured left wrist received in a fall at work.

Charles Hanlon, 34, of Shadyside Ave. suffered a bruise of the elbow when it bumped against a tilted mailbox as he was driving along Shadyside Ave. yesterday morning with his arm out the window.

Referendum On Wheat Will Be Held July 23

The national wheat marketing quota referendum will be held July 23, not July 25, the Beaver County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee said today in correcting the date.

Marketing quotas for the 1960 wheat crop have been proclaimed by the secretary of agriculture, as required by legislation whenever the available supply of wheat is more than 20 percent above the normal supply. However, quotas will not become effective unless they are approved by at least two-thirds of the producers voting in the referendum.

If quotas are approved for the 1960 wheat crop, it will mark the seventh consecutive year they have been used for wheat. Wheat quotas and acreage allotments apply only in the 39 so-called "commercial" wheat states, including Pennsylvania and Ohio.

County Doctors Hear Infant Surgery Aired

Surgical treatment of congenital malformations in newborn babies was reviewed by Dr. Thomas Boles of Children's Hospital at Columbus at a meeting of the Columbiana County Medical Society Tuesday night at the Hotel Wick at Lisbon.

About 26 physicians attended the session at which comprehensive brochures listing mental health resources in the state and area were distributed.

The brochures were prepared by Mrs. Marilyn Solak of the county education office under the authorization of the county Mental Health Association with the approval of the society.

Dr. William Kolozsi of Salem, president, was in charge. The next meeting will be in September.

Year's Committees Appointed For Barbershop Song Group

Working committees for the year were named by William E. Brooks, president, at a meeting of the East Liverpool Barbershop Quartet Society Monday night at the DAV home.

Appointed were Brooks, J. Wilbur Newman and Harold Putt, bylaws; Robert Blatchford, Jack Hile, Richard Smith, Lee Adams, Dale Keddie and Howard Gibbs, program; Jack Hughey, Jerry Jividen, Fred Kane, Charles Hartenback, Norman Hamilton, William Osborn and Ray Thorn, house and social; Brooks, Norman Delaney, Glenn Hart, quartet promotion; Donald Schussler, Glenn Jarvis, Kane, Dean Manning, John Skidmore, Glenn Woods, Dave Wheadon and Putt, building; Newman, Keddie, Manning, Edward Fahnert, William Gibbs, Putt, Jime Raffle and Virgil Clark, membership; Charles Brooks, Keddie, Putt, Newman, Blatchford, Woods and Stanley Hindmarch, for the 1960 parade of quartets.

Section leaders named include Raffle, tenors; William DeBee, leads; Fahnert, baritones, and Smith, bass. They will be in charge of policing, instructing and increasing the membership in their respective sections.

The first in a series of summer bi-monthly chapter novice quartet performances was held. Participating were Lee Adams, tenor; Hamilton, lead; Blatchford, baritone; Newman, bass; Hart, tenor; Skidmore, lead; Keddie, baritone, and Smith, bass.

Different members will sing in different quartets at each meeting and will be given points. A winner in each section will be named at the end of the contest.

Blatchford announced a special "Stop the Music" program will be held at the meeting July 6. A "Bring Your Boss Night" will be held July 20. Self-employed members can take a guest.

Woods, director, said the chorus will appear in a quartet show Friday night at Cadiz High School. Members will meet at the community parking lot at 6:30 p. m. The Colonials quartet and the Note Nuts quartet also will appear in the show.

Anyone wanting the services of a quartet or the chorus should contact Putt, public relations director, a month in advance, it was announced.

Elected As Trustee

CLEVELAND (AP)—Case Institute of Technology has elected Dr. Simon Ramo, executive vice president of Thompson Ramo Wooldridge Inc., to its board of trustees, Chairman Frederick C. Crawford announced today.

Palestine Board Hires Instructor

EAST PALESTINE — Miss Virginia Hanlon of Boardman was hired as a high school English instructor by the Board of Education Monday night, replacing Mrs. Carolyn Emerick. The latter resigned to return to Pittsburgh, where her husband is studying in a seminary.

Miss Hanlon is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University. Her hiring leaves the school faculty complete except for a home economics teacher.

The board completed final plans for a dinner meeting of the Boards of Education of Lisbon, Columbiana, Leetonia and East Palestine tonight at 6:30 at the high school.

Edwin Hoon of Columbus, field representative of the Ohio Education Association, will speak on new school legislation.

Peggy Lee Divorces Her Third Husband

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Peggy Lee won a divorce from her third husband after singing the marital blues in court Tuesday.

The blonde 39-year-old singer said her husband, actor Dewey Martin, 35, was jealous, used vile language and tried to upset her before singing engagements. She didn't ask for alimony. She and her husband were permitted to keep their personal property.

Local Group Will Plan Its Role In Valley Tour

Sixteen are expected at a meeting Thursday noon in the Travelers Hotel to plan the East Liverpool district's role in a tour of the area June 28-30 arranged by the Upper Ohio Valley Development Council to interest industrialists seeking plant sites.

The meeting was called for members of the local UOVDC committee headed by Winston A. Porter. Also expected to attend are Walter L. Myers Jr. of Steubenville, executive manager of the UOVDC; T. Fred Edwards, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and C. W. Ashbaugh, vice president of the UOVDC.

The valley tour, starting in Marietta, will have East Liverpool as its northern terminus.

Ex-U.S. Attorney Dies

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Maurice M. Milligan, 74, U.S. attorney in Kansas City from 1934 to 1945, died Tuesday. He was credited with smashing the political machine of the late Tom J. Pendergast through a series of prosecutions that included vote fraud and income tax evasion.

Seeks New Pipeline

WASHINGTON (AP)—A proposal to build about 37½ miles of natural gas pipeline in Ohio, and abandon about 45 miles of small diameter line, has been submitted to the Power Commission for approval. Ohio Fuel Gas Co. estimates its new pipeline will cost $1,740,500, and that abandonment of its other pipeline would mean terminating service to 23 customers.

GUESS: HOW MANY FRANKIES DID SUPERIOR MAKE LAST YEAR?

HERE'S ALL YOU DO:

1. Obtain an entry blank FREE of charge at your food store, or use the official entry blank in the back of every package of Superior's delicious FRANKIES, the Keener Wiener.
2. Fill in the entry blank. Write on it how many FRANKIES (not pounds) you think Superior made last year. Fill in the other information called for on the blank. It is not necessary to purchase anything in order to enter this contest!
3. Put a stamp on the entry blank and mail it. It's already addressed.

ENTER TODAY AND AS OFTEN AS YOU LIKE!

There is no limit on your number of entries. The more often you enter, the greater your chances to win. Each entry must be on a separate entry blank from a Superior FRANKIES package, or a facsimile entry blank which can be obtained at your dealer without charge. You may be the lucky winner of a year's supply of food, which, based on a U. S. Government estimate for an average family of four, amounts to $1500.00 per year.

The actual number of FRANKIES that Superior made last year is held in a sealed envelope in the vaults of the First National Bank of Canton, Ohio, and will not be revealed until July 13, 1959.

HINTS GIVEN in advertising concerning the contest are rough calculations only, and cannot be taken as 100% accurate. Number referred to is "how many FRANKIES" (not pounds). The year of wiener production referred to is the calendar year of Jan. 1, 1958 through Dec. 31, 1958.

COMPLETE RULES ARE ON THE BACK OF EVERY ENTRY BLANK

Look for Superior's New Emblem of Quality!

FRANKIES

Free Entry Blanks at Your Dealer!

Nothing to buy! Contest open to everyone . . . Mom, Dad, Sister, Brother. Enter as often as you like! YOU MAY BE A WINNER!

Here are 2 helpful hints:

1. If all the FRANKIES Superior made last year were divided equally among all the Indians living on reservations in the United States, each would receive approximately 145 FRANKIES.
2. If all the FRANKIES Superior made last year were laid end-to-end, they would stretch from Cleveland, Ohio to a point beyond Juneau, Alaska.

Your entry blank is on the back of the package or at your food store.

Appointed were Brooks, J. Wilbur Newman and Harold Putt, bylaws; Robert Blatchford, Jack Hile, Richard Smith, Lee Adams, Dale Keddie and Howard Gibbs, program; Jack Hughey, Jerry Jividen, Fred Kane, Charles Hartenback, Norman Hamilton, William Osborn and Ray Thorn, house and social; Brooks, Norman Delaney, Glenn Hart, quartet promotion; Donald Schussler, Glenn Jarvis, Kane, Dean Manning, John Skidmore, Glenn Woods, Dave Wheeldon and Putt, building; Newman, Keddie, Manning, Edward Fahnert, William Gibbs, Putt, Jime Raffle and Virgil Clark, membership; Charles Brooks, Keddie, Putt, Newman, Blatchford, Woods and Stanley Hindmarch, for the 1960 parade of quartets.

Section leaders named include Raffle, tenors; William DeBee, leads; Fahnert, baritones, and Smith, bass. They will be in charge of policing, instructing and increasing the membership in their respective sections.

The first in a series of summer bi-monthly chapter novice quartet performances was held. Participating were Lee Adams, tenor; Hamilton, lead; Blatchford, baritone; Newman, bass; Hart, tenor; Skidmore, lead; Keddie, baritone, and Smith, bass.

Different members will sing in different quartets at each meeting and will be given points. A winner in each section will be named at the end of the contest.

Blatchford announced a special "Stop the Music" program will be held at the meeting July 6. A "Bring Your Boss Night" will be held July 20. Self-employed members can take a guest.

Woods, director, said the chorus will appear in a quartet show Friday night at Cadiz High School. Members will meet at the community parking lot at 6:30 p. m. The Colonials quartet and the Note Nuts quartet also will appear in the show.

Anyone wanting the services of a quartet or the chorus should contact Putt, public relations director, a month in advance, it was announced.

Elected As Trustee

CLEVELAND (AP)—Case Institute of Technology has elected Dr. Simon Ramo, executive vice president of Thompson Ramo Wooldridge Inc., to its board of trustees, Chairman Frederick C. Crawford announced today.

Palestine Board Hires Instructor

EAST PALESTINE — Miss Virginia Hanlon of Boardman was hired as a high school English instructor by the Board of Education Monday night, replacing Mrs. Carolyn Emerick. The latter resigned to return to Pittsburgh, where her husband is studying in a seminary.

Miss Hanlon is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University. Her hiring leaves the school faculty complete except for a home economics teacher.

The board completed final plans for a dinner meeting of the Boards of Education of Lisbon, Columbiana, Leetonia and East Palestine tonight at 6:30 at the high school.

Edwin Hoon of Columbus, field representative of the Ohio Education Association, will speak on new school legislation.

Peggy Lee Divorces Her Third Husband

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Peggy Lee won a divorce from her third husband after singing the marital blues in court Tuesday.

The blonde 39-year-old singer said her husband, actor Dewey Martin, 35, was jealous, used vile language and tried to upset her before singing engagements. She didn't ask for alimony. She and her husband were permitted to keep their personal property.

Local Group Will Plan Its Role In Valley Tour

Sixteen are expected at a meeting Thursday noon in the Travelers Hotel to plan the East Liverpool district's role in a tour of the area June 28-30 arranged by the Upper Ohio Valley Development Council to interest industrialists seeking plant sites.

The meeting was called for members of the local UOVDC committee headed by Winston A. Porter. Also expected to attend are Walter L. Myers Jr. of Steubenville, executive manager of the UOVDC; T. Fred Edwards, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and C. W. Ashbaugh, vice president of the UOVDC.

The valley tour, starting in Marietta, will have East Liverpool as its northern terminus.

Ex-U.S. Attorney Dies

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Maurice M. Milligan, 74, U.S. attorney in Kansas City from 1934 to 1945, died Tuesday. He was credited with smashing the political machine of the late Tom J. Pendergast through a series of prosecutions that included vote fraud and income tax evasion.

Seeks New Pipeline

WASHINGTON (AP)—A proposal to build about 37½ miles of natural gas pipeline in Ohio, and abandon about 45 miles of small diameter line, has been submitted to the Power Commission for approval. Ohio Fuel Gas Co. estimates its new pipeline will cost $1,740,500, and that abandonment of its other pipeline would mean terminating service to 23 customers.

GUESS: HOW MANY FRANKIES DID SUPERIOR MAKE LAST YEAR?

HERE'S ALL YOU DO:

1. Obtain an entry blank FREE of charge at your food store, or use the official entry blank in the back of every package of Superior's delicious FRANKIES, the Keener Wiener.
2. Fill in the entry blank. Write on it how many FRANKIES (not pounds) you think Superior made last year. Fill in the other information called for on the blank. It is not necessary to purchase anything in order to enter this contest!
3. Put a stamp on the entry blank and mail it. It's already addressed.

ENTER TODAY AND AS OFTEN AS YOU LIKE!

There is no limit on your number of entries. The more often you enter, the greater your chances to win. Each entry must be on a separate entry blank from a Superior FRANKIES package, or a facsimile entry blank which can be obtained at your dealer without charge. You may be the lucky winner of a year's supply of food, which, based on a U. S. Government estimate for an average family of four, amounts to $1500.00 per year.

The actual number of FRANKIES that Superior made last year is held in a sealed envelope in the vaults of the First National Bank of Canton, Ohio, and will not be revealed until July 13, 1959.

HINTS GIVEN in advertising concerning the contest are rough calculations only, and cannot be taken as 100% accurate. Number referred to is "how many FRANKIES" (not pounds). The year of wiener production referred to is the calendar year of Jan. 1, 1958 through Dec. 31, 1958.

COMPLETE RULES ARE ON THE BACK OF EVERY ENTRY BLANK

Look for Superior's New Emblem of Quality!

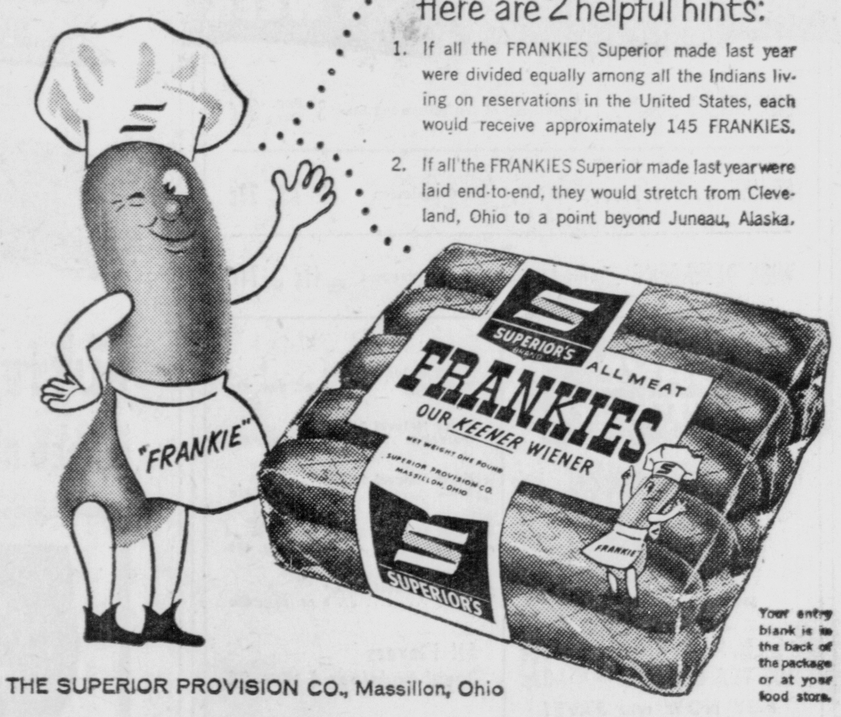
SUPERIOR'S BRAND

Free Entry Blanks at Your Dealer!

Nothing to buy! Contest open to everyone . . . Mom, Dad, Sister, Brother. Enter as often as you like! YOU MAY BE A WINNER!

Here are 2 helpful hints:

1. If all the FRANKIES Superior made last year were divided equally among all the Indians living on reservations in the United States, each would receive approximately 145 FRANKIES.
2. If all the FRANKIES Superior made last year were laid end-to-end, they would stretch from Cleveland, Ohio to a point beyond Juneau, Alaska.



Your entry blank is on the back of the package or at your food store.

Waterford Park Opens 46-Day Summer Meeting Today

Nearly 6,000 Fans Expected At Mile Oval

With a break from the weatherman a crowd of some 6,000 was expected to be on hand to open a 46-day meeting today at Waterford Park.

Featured today was the New Waterford Park Purse at six furlongs for a purse worth $1,300. It was to be run in the seventh race.

Nine races will be run daily at the Hancock County track with post time at 2 p. m. Ladies day will be observed every Tuesday.

Horace Wade, managing director, said some $500,000 in purse money will be distributed throughout the summer meeting.

The next big feature at Waterford will be on Saturday when the $3,000 Waterford Mile Handicap will be run.

Wade took over at Waterford Park a year ago and has strived to make it one of the top plants in the nation.

He announced that Waterford Park will offer 20 major feature races during the June 17-Aug. 8 meeting.

Richest race on the summer program is the $5,000 Independence Day Handicap for 3-year-olds and up over a mile and one-eighth on July 4.

Fourteen races will also feature the July 4 program which attracted over 5,000 fans last year.

A new race will be run during the session in the Boyle Memorial—worth $3,000—in memory of the late owner of Waterford Park.

The officials of Waterford Park announced that over 900 horses are stabled for the summer meeting and many have never raced on the local mile track before.

Wade said the caliber of racing will be better this year than at any time in the past. The managing director hinted that he is attempting to obtain Eddie Arcaro and Willie Hartack to ride sometime during the 46-day meeting.

College World Series Down To Three Teams

OMAHA (AP) — Fresno State and Oklahoma State will meet in a win-or-go-home NCAA college baseball world series game tonight with the winner to battle with Arizona for the championship.

The three teams are 3-1 following the surprise win of Fresno State over Arizona, 2-0, Tuesday night and Oklahoma State's 4-3 elimination of Penn State. Arizona won today's bye in a drawing and remains the favorite because of the day of rest.

Don't Get Enough Walks To Win Title, Fox Says

NEW YORK (AP)—Nellie Fox, annual contender but never a winner, is convinced he'll never capture a batting title.

"Naw, I'll never win," said the veteran Chicago White Sox second baseman. "I just don't get enough walks. I come out of the dugout swinging.

"Look it up and you'll see that I've had more than 600 official times at bat in each of the last six years," Fox pointed out. "that means I've got to get an awful lot of hits. The fellow that wins the batting title usually gets around 100 walks. My average is around 60."

Nellie got one hit in four times at bat Tuesday night as the White Sox bowed to the New York Yankees, 5-1. This caused his average to drop two points to .340, still good enough for third behind Detroit's Harvey Kuenn and Al Kaline.

"Sure it would be nice to win the batting title," Fox said. "but I'm not even thinking about it. What I want more than anything else is for us to win the pennant. We've been second so often it's getting monotonous.

"I think this is the year, though. We've got the best chance we've ever had. Know what I think? The way this race is shaping up, the team that has the best record in September will win it."

Nellie now has played 573 consecutive games, a record for second basemen.

Intentional Pass Fails As Goliat Smacks Home Run

By The Associated Press

Mike Goliat has clubbed many a home run, but the one he'll probably remember most came Tuesday night against Havana's Emilio Cueche.

Cueche was attempting to walk Goliat purposely when the Montreal Royals' second baseman reached out and smacked the first wide pitch over the right field fence with two men on base. It provided the winning margin in the Royals' 7-5 victory.

In other International League action. Toronto defeated Miami 5-2, Buffalo clung to a half-game first place lead over Richmond, though losing to Columbus 3-2 while Rochester beat the Vees 5-1.

Indians Ride Crest Of 7 Straight

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cleveland's Indians are riding their hottest streak of the season and Cal McLish is back in stride—a winner for the first time in more than a month, but still trying to shake a shutout jinx.

The big right-hander, whose lone whitewash job in the majors came eight years ago, pitched the Injuns to their seventh straight success and a full-game lead in the American League race with a 4-1 victory over the Boston Red Sox Tuesday night.

It was the fifth time this season McLish has come close to nailing that long-pursued second shutout. He missed by inches when Marty Keough's seventh-inning drive ticked outfielder Rocky Colavito's glove and got away for a home run.

The New York Yankees helped Cleveland along by defeating Chicago's second place White Sox 5-1. Detroit at Baltimore and Kansas City at Washington were rained out.

In the National League, Milwaukee gained a two-game lead with a 5-4 victory at Los Angeles while second place San Francisco lost 2-1 to Cincinnati. Pittsburgh beat the Chicago Cubs 5-2, and St. Louis swept a twi-night pair from Philadelphia, 8-1 and 5-2.

McLish, now 6-3, picked on his favorite pigeons. He beat the Red Sox for the fifth time in a row since last June 26, giving up six hits, walking but two and striking out six for his first complete game since May 8. He is 7-1 life against Boston.

The Indians plunked the Red Sox back into a last-place tie with Washington on a two-run homer by Dick Brown in the fifth inning against loser Ted Wills (2-2). It was Brown's first of the year, but Cleveland's 18th in the streak—one shy of the AL record for seven games held by the 1936 Yankees and 1940 Red Sox.

The Yankees moved within a single game of fourth place Baltimore behind the four-hit pitching of Art Ditmar (5-4), who won his fourth in a row. The Sox scored in the first inning on a double by Nellie Fox and Sherm Lollar's single, then managed only a pair of singles by Norm Cash the rest of the way.

Billy Pierce (7-7) was the loser, checking the Yanks on three hits until they broke a 1-1 tie with two runs in the sixth on Mickey Mantle's triple, a hit batter, Hec Lopez' double and Bobby Richardson's sacrifice fly.

Parry O'Brien Shatters Own Mark In Shot

POMONA, Calif. (AP) — With only 65 persons watching, Olympic champion Parry O'Brien shattered his own world record in the shot put Tuesday night with a heave of 63 feet, 8 inches.

O'Brien's listed record, 63 feet, 2 inches, was made in Los Angeles in 1956.

The big ex-University of Southern California star was competing at Mt. San Antonio College in a special competition designed to give him a chance at the record. He had made several good puts in the Southern Pacific AAU meet last Saturday and said he liked the ring at Pomona and would like a few more tries.

He fouled on the first try, broke the record on the second, then had, in order, 61-7¼, 60-1½, 62-1½, 61-4. His competitors were Bob Humphries of the Southern California Striders, 57-4, and Bob Wade, unattached, 54-9½.

Southern California freshman Dallas Long had tied O'Brien's existing mark earlier this season. The two will compete Friday and Saturday in Boulder, Colo., at the National AAU meet.

O'Brien's record undoubtedly will be recognized, said Alex Petrie, an AAU official.

Big Don Credits Reds' Trainer For Latest Success

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Cincinnati's big Don Newcombe who continued his spectacular comeback Tuesday night by beating San Francisco 2-1, credits a trainer for his sixth straight complete game pitching triumph.

The 32-year-old who started in Brooklyn, lost six straight for the Dodgers in Los Angeles last year before being traded to the Redlegs.

He arrived there with a sore right arm and gives full credit for his comeback to Cincinnati trainer Wayne Anderson.

"He takes better care of my arm than he does his own children," declared the 240-pound Newcombe who won 27 games with the Dodgers in 1956 before his throwing wing started going bad.

Akins Will Hit Comeback Trail In Bout Tonight

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Virgil Akins, who used to be welterweight champion, hits what he hopes will be the comeback trail tonight against undefeated Luis Rodriguez, the Cuban welter king.

Akins is 7-5 favorite to stop the speedy Rodriguez in their nationally-televised 10-round fight in the Miami Beach exhibition hall.

Akins boasts a 49-22-1 record and claims he had a letdown after winning the title from Miami Beach's Vince Martinez last June. He lost the crown to Don Jordan and failed to regain it in a return bout.

Waterford Park Opens 46-Day Summer Meeting Today

Nearly 6,000 Fans Expected At Mile Oval

With a break from the weatherman a crowd of some 6,000 was expected to be on hand to open a 46-day meeting today at Waterford Park.

Featured today was the New Waterford Park Purse at six furlongs for a purse worth $1,300. It was to be run in the seventh race.

Nine races will be run daily at the Hancock County track with post time at 2 p. m. Ladies day will be observed every Tuesday.

Horace Wade, managing director, said some $500,000 in purse money will be distributed throughout the summer meeting.

The next big feature at Waterford will be on Saturday when the $3,000 Waterford Mile Handicap will be run.

Wade took over at Waterford Park a year ago and has strived to make it one of the top plants in the nation.

He announced that Waterford Park will offer 20 major feature races during the June 17-Aug. 8 meeting.

Richest race on the summer program is the $5,000 Independence Day Handicap for 3-year-olds and up over a mile and one-eighth on July 4.

Fourteen races will also feature the July 4 program which attracted over 5,000 fans last year.

A new race will be run during the session in the Boyle Memorial—worth $3,000—in memory of the late owner of Waterford Park.

The officials of Waterford Park announced that over 900 horses are stabled for the summer meeting and many have never raced on the local mile track before.

Wade said the caliber of racing will be better this year than at any time in the past. The managing director hinted that he is attempting to obtain Eddie Arcaro and Willie Hartack to ride sometime during the 46-day meeting.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Virgil Akins, who used to be welterweight champion, hits what he hopes will be the comeback trail tonight against undefeated Luis Rodriguez, the Cuban welter king.

Akins is 7-5 favorite to stop the speedy Rodriguez in their nationally-televised 10-round fight in the Miami Beach exhibition hall.

Akins boasts a 49-22-1 record and claims he had a letdown after winning the title from Miami Beach's Vince Martinez last June. He lost the crown to Don Jordan and failed to regain it in a return bout.

Newcombe Stops Giants, 2-1, For Sixth Straight Victory

Pirates Down Cubs, 5-2, Get Tighter Hold On 3rd

By ED WILKS
Assceiated Press Sports Writer

There were snickers last spring when Manager Mayo Smith figured the big guy on his pitching staff might be Don Newcombe. Sure, Newk had won 27 in 1956, but he was washed up, hadn't been able to win 20 over two seasons since.

So who's the ace of the Reds staff? Big Newk, winner of six straight, all complete games, with a 3.00 earned run average and 4-0 against the slugging San Francisco Giants after he chopped them down again Tuesday night 2-1.

It was Newcombe's seventh victory of the season, matching his total for last year when he lost 13. This one slipped the Giants two games behind the National League leading Milwaukee Braves who came off with a 5-4 victory at Los Angeles.

Pittsburgh tightened its hold on third, just a game behind the Giants, by beating the Chicago Cubs 5-2. St. Louis swept a twi-night pair from Philadelphia, 8-1 and 5-2.

In the American League, Cleveland made it seven in a row, 4-1 at Boston, and took a full game lead over Chicago's second-place White Sox beaten 5-1 at New York. Detroit at Baltimore and Kansas City at Washington, were rained out.

Newk, who hasn't lost since he dropped his fourth May 10, stretched the Giants slump to three games with a six-hitter, walking none and striking out three. The sixth-place Reds didn't give him a lead until they roughed up Mike McCormick for both runs in the eighth inning on Vada Pinson's 11th homer, a single by Frank Robinson and a double by Frank Thomas.

Lew Burdette won his 10th for the Braves, but failed to go the distance for the fifth time in a row when the Dodgers, shut out for seven frames, scored twice in the ninth. John Roseboro's double and a walk brought on reliever Don McMahon, who gave up a two-run single by Charlie Neal before getting Wally Moon on a pop up that ended it. Moon, who was 4-for-5, had tripled home a run and scored himself in a two-run eighth.

The Braves, shut out for 22 innings before a bases-loaded walk gave them a two-out run in the first, wrapped it up with four runs in the seventh after two were out, ending Johnny Podres' winning string at five. Singles by Casey Wise, Hank Aaron, who slipped below .400 for the first time, and Frank Torre, and Del Crandall's two-run double did it.

Bob Friend (3-8) won it for the Pirates, who broke a 1-1 tie with four runs after two were out in the ninth. Don Hoak's two-run double and Friend's two-run single beat Dave Hillman (3-5) as the Bucs won their fifth decision in the last six.

The Cards made it 8 out of 10 as Wilmer Mizell (8-3) beat the Phils in the opener and Ernie Broglio, who had lost five, won his first in the majors. Hal Smith homered in the opener for the Cards and Gino Cimoli hit a two-run homer in the first inning of the nightcap, clinched on Stan Musial's triple in the fourth.

Dave Philley homered and singled for both second game runs by the Phils, who managed only three runs despite 21 hits in the doubleheader. Ruben Gomez (1-4) and Jim Owens (4-4) were the losers.

Bait Company Cleans Up On Golf Course

TORONTO (AP) — Shortly after the last golfer has left the 18th hole on many of Toronto's golf courses each evening, a small army of workers moves in. They're not after pars or birdies, but dew worms.

One firm, Brennan Brothers Live Bait Company, sends out 350 to 400 worm-pickers on 14 courses in the metropolitan Toronto area. Rights to gather worms on the properties are leased by the company under contracts.

This year the company hopes to sell 100,000 worms for fishermen, mostly in the United States for about $500,000.

The company's plant has a walk-in refrigerator where as many as 15,000,000 worms can be kept in a state of hibernation — at about 34 degrees — before shipment in boxes to dealers in Ontario, Quebec and the United States.

"Toronto and Hamilton have the best worm belts on the continent," said Dave Brennan, because climate and soil conditions are perfect.

Good pickers get about 12,000 worms each night. Skill is needed to spot the worms instantly in the beam of a headlamp and to pick them before their quick retreat.

The pickers — many of them girls — are equipped with a headlamp powered by a belt battery, and two one - gallon cans are strapped to their legs. One is filled with sawdust, used to give the hands a better grip on the slippery night crawlers, and the other is for the collected worms.

Navy crew coach Russell (Rusty) Callow is in his 37th year of coaching. He was born in Olympia, Wash., 68 years ago.

Chester Legion, Medics Laughlins Take LL Tilts

The Chester Legion, winners of the first half in the National Division, broke on top in the second half standings with a 5-3 win over Burbicks in Little League action Tuesday.

The Medics handed McBurneys a 7-2 setback and Homer Laughlin, behind the four-hit pitching of Jim Hissom, edged Travelers, 1-0.

Dennis Horger swung the big bat for Chester last night by homering twice and collecting two singles in four trips. Chuck Robinson also added a pair of singles for the winners.

Bill Wright picked up the victory for the Legion and fanned 10 batters in going the distance.

Dick Smith pounded a double and single for the up-and-coming Burbick team.

Len Walker's home run gave Hissom all the margin he needed as Laughlins shut out the Travelers nine.

Walker's roundtripper came in the fifth inning to break a scoreless deadlock.

Hissom, in pitching the shutout, struck out six. Roy Scott paced the losers with a double and single.

FIELD AND STREAM

By R. L. LIDE

While driving along route 172 Monday afternoon, in the vicinity of the County Home, I saw a pileated woodpecker fly across the road within 50 yards of my car.

It lit on the side of a tree about 20 feet off the highway. While it is not a common sight to see one of these birds, I spotted as many as 12 in one day down near Salineville.

Not too long ago one was spotted near Columbus and it created quite a stir among the bird clubs.

The bird, the largest of the woodpecker family, is about the size of a crow. It nests in a hole in a large tree from 12 to 60 feet above ground. The entrance is three to four inches in diameter, while the cavity is 12 to 30 inches.

—:—

WOOD DUCKS use the old pileated woodpeckers' nests and this could be why Columbiana County has such a heavy population of wood ducks each fall. I have seen upward to 200 in one flight during the fall of the year about duck hunting time.

It is a common sight to see wood ducks on most of the beaver ponds.

I believe that if wood ducks were as prolific in the other 87 counties in Ohio as they are in Columbiana County—coupled with the same increase in a few other states—they would increase to the point of being the No. 1 duck in numbers in America. That is proof that Nature does a lot of providing when man is prevented from upsetting the balance.

Pileated woodpeckers are protected by law and are becoming fairly common in this county, while the wood ducks actually exceed the green head and black mallards, according to my observations.

It is only reasonable to assume that the wood duck population will increase as fast as the pileated woodpeckers provide nesting sites.

—:—

THERE ARE three wood duck nesting boxes in Zepernick Lake which I helped erect and each year one or two of them are used.

At the same time I see some large woodpecker holes up in the dead trees still standing in the water and I know one of the holes has been used annually. I saw the mother duck go in and out. No doubt others are used that I cannot view from one viewing spot.

According to reports from the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, drought conditions are playing havoc with the ducks that nest up in the northern part of our country, particular in the Canadian regions.

That's the point I don't like. If we run true to form, there will be no less than 500 ducks on the Guilford swamp area and the Salem reservoir next hunting season. While we may have what we consider a lot of ducks, we will no doubt feel the effects of bag limits that could be cut down in order to protect the possible shortages of ducks.

This is only logical reasoning because our ducks fly south, most of them, and they need protection where ever they go.

Otherwise, if we thought we should keep the same bag limits regardless of the shortages in other states, and this was allowed, we would be acting anything but like conservationists should.

Understand, though, I am not predicting what the bag limits will be. That is a matter which will be determined by the waterfowl technicians on both the state and federal level.

LITTLE BLUE RUSTY, shown with his owner, Maurice Parker of the East Liverpool Beagle Club, has earned the title of field champion and a certificate from the American Kennel Club. Rusty had wins in Ohio, Pennsylvania and New Jersey to finish with a total of 198 points. The field champ also was named the outstanding 15-inch hound at the East Liverpool club last year.

Maurice Stokes Has Hard Fight Ahead For Recovery

By JIM SCHOTTELKOTTE
Cincinnati Enquirer Sports Writer

CINCINNATI (AP) — Maurice Stokes is 26 years old today. There won't be much of a celebration.

The big guy lies immobile in a bed at Christ Hospital, inching toward recovery.

Before illness hit, on March 15, 1958, he was Maurice the Magnificent, Maurice the quick, husky, superbly conditioned pro basketball leader—ace rebounder for the Cincinnati Royals.

It's been 459 days since he was stricken on a plane flight here after a game in Detroit.

He has never swerved from grim determination to walk out of the hospital one day.

Maurice continues to make what doctors call gradual progress.

The illness that left him paralyzed and unable to speak was finally diagnosed as post-traumatic encephalopathy.

That's medical talk for a brain ailment after a head injury.

For Big Mo, recovery means learning to walk and talk all over again.

He has learned to say a few simple worlds, like "I" and has regained some movement in his limbs.

His laugh is easily distinguishable.

Mo is mentally alert as any of his visitors. He talks through a system of charades. The visitor recites the alphabet and he nods when the letter he wants is spoken. In this way, he strings together words and sentences.

I visited him last week with Jack Twyman, a former teammate and his legal guardian. The conversation, as it often does, got around to basketball and to the Royals' chances for next season.

Maurice indicated he wanted to say something.

"Before M," asked Twyman taking out a pad and pencil. Mo shock his head.

"M" asked Jack. Another no.

"N," asked Jack. This time a nod yes.

Twyman patiently skipped along the alphabet until the words came out.

"Need rebounder," was what Stokes wanted to say.

Whether Maurice will ever return to basketball is still unknown.

"Our main objective now is self help" said Dr. Benjamin Hawkins, Royals' team doctor.

During week days, virtually every minute of the day is filled.

After he wakes about 7 a.m., a nurse feeds, bathes and shaves him.

Then comes morning sessions of physiotherapy and speech therapy. After lunch at noon, he goes back for more speech and physical therapy. Often there are night sessions.

Mo has made considerable strikes in his fight for recovery, but still has a hard fight ahead.

Woodbine Has 11 Errors In Loss To Golden Star

Third place Golden Star surprised Woodbine with a 23-11 victory Tuesday in the Pony League.

The Dairymen rapped 19 hits, which included an awesome display of hitting by Bob Myers and Jim Tridico who collected five straight hits each in the same number of times at bat.

Golden Star broke a 1-1 tie at the end of the first inning with a big 5-run second frame. The winners added two more in the third and seven runs each in the fourth and fifth innings.

Tridico also was the winning pitcher and gave up only six hits.

Woodbine's erratic fielding attests to the lopsided score. The Woodbine nine committed 11 errors during the contest.

Other leading hitters for Golden Star were Jim Conkle with a home run and Speerhas who had a 3-for-3 night. Bebout chipped in with two hits.

Jim Richardson with a home run and double paced the losers at the plate.

Swede Shows Little Fire In Last Workout

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

GROSSINGER, N.Y. (AP)—To put it mildly, Ingemar Johansson was not impressive. Perhaps it was an off day for the unbeaten Swede. Perhaps he was holding back for fear of giving away any secrets. Whatever it was, it left many boxing writers cold.

Johansson, in the home stretch of his training for the June 25 title match with Heavyweight Champion Floyd Patterson at Yankee Stadium, showed little fire in his work Tuesday.

After spearing Bill Johnson with some stinging left jabs, he confined himself to trying to block punches. Some he didn't block, especially when Clarence Floyd, a New York light heavyweight crowded him. Johansson said candidly after it was over: "Four good days and then this—the fifth. And with all the boxing writers and Jack Dempsey watching. I was not so fast. It was one of those days."

The European heavyweight champ used his right sparingly as he has done in all his workouts. Still, they insist the right is a big punch—the punch that knocked Eddie Machen out in one round. A slugger devoting all his time to a jab is something like Mickey Mantle spending an entire spring training practicing bunts.

When is he going to throw the right? What is he saving it for? Maybe Patterson will find out June 25.

Minoso Swings Hottest Bat In Major Leagues

BOSTON (AP)—Minnie Minoso, whose booming bat has helped Cleveland regain the American League lead, today credited right guesses and Rocky Colavito for his current spree.

The hottest batsman in the majors these days, the Cuban outfielder who admits to 35 years is the kingpin in the Indians' seven-game winning streak which has shot them a full game past Chicago in the AL race.

In those seven contests, Minoso has belted four homers including a grand slam, driven in 15 runs to place among the league leaders (42), and hit the ball at a .387 clip. His average has climbed 19 points to .303.

"It's just that I guess pitches better right now," said Minnie.

"Sometime you can figure what pitcher will throw pretty good," explained the lifetime .307 hitter in his 10th major league season. "Other times you wrong plenty. Now I figure pitches right."

Minoso also figures it helps to be fifth in the batting order, right behind Colavito who has hit six homers and raised his average to .299 in the winning streak.

"Maybe I get better pitches now because other teams are so careful with Colavito," Minnie said. "When he walk, the pitchers throw good to me. I always hit more bad pitches than good ones in past. I sure hope I can hit behind Colavito for rest of the year."

Hancock County Fishermen Set Annual Derby Saturday

The Hancock County Fishermen's Club will sponsor its annual "Fishing Derby" Saturday at Tomlinson Run State Park.

The "derby" will be held from noon until 5:30 p. m. Registration will begin at noon and will be open to boys and girls up to 15 years of age.

A long list of prizes will be donated by area merchants. Among those donating prizes are Smith Auto Parts, Hays Oil Co., A & M Motors of East Liverpool, and Ludovici Pontiac, Werkheiser's Hardware, Citizens Drugs, Faulk Brothers, Chaney's Service, all of Chester.

Pughtown Service & Supply, Phillips Lumber Co. and Watson Service of New Cumberland, and Dave Frew Sporting Goods and Hall Sporting Goods of Weirton also will offer prizes.

Bergener's scored a 27-1 victory over Potters Bank & Trust and Coca Cola won by forfeit from Potters Savings and Loan in the Tuesday's Little Minor League.

A nine-hit attack and six errors helped Bergeners to their one-sided victory.

Kountz was the winning hurler and struck out nine while Bill Smith was checked with the loss. Newlen, Gamble and Marshall collected two hits each for the winners.

In one other Minor League contest, Knowles nipped Furniture City, 9-8. Sanford was the winning hurler and gave up five hits. Buchanan poked a triple and single to lead the winners at the plate.

FIELD AND STREAM

By R. L. LIDE

While driving along route 172 Monday afternoon, in the vicinity of the County Home, I saw a pileated woodpecker fly across the road within 50 yards of my car.

It lit on the side of a tree about 20 feet off the highway. While it is not a common sight to see one of these birds, I spotted as many as 12 in one day down near Salineville.

Not too long ago one was spotted near Columbus and it created quite a stir among the bird clubs.

The bird, the largest of the woodpecker family, is about the size of a crow. It nests in a hole in a large tree from 12 to 60 feet above ground. The entrance is three to four inches in diameter, while the cavity is 12 to 30 inches.

WOOD DUCKS use the old pileated woodpeckers' nests and this could be why Columbiana County has such a heavy population of wood ducks each fall. I have seen upward to 200 in one flight during the fall of the year about duck hunting time.

It is a common sight to see wood ducks on most of the beaver ponds.

I believe that if wood ducks were as prolific in the other 87 counties in Ohio as they are in Columbiana County—coupled with the same increase in a few other states—they would increase to the point of being the No. 1 duck in numbers in America. That is proof that Nature does a lot of providing when man is prevented from upsetting the balance.

Pileated woodpeckers are protected by law and are becoming fairly common in this county, while the wood ducks actually exceed the green head and black mallards, according to my observations.

It is only reasonable to assume that the wood duck population will increase as fast as the pileated woodpeckers provide nesting sites.

THERE ARE three wood duck nesting boxes in Zepernick Lake which I helped erect and each year one or two of them are used.

At the same time I see some large woodpecker holes up in the dead trees still standing in the water and I know one of the holes has been used annually. I saw the mother duck go in and out. No doubt others are used that I cannot view from one viewing spot.

According to reports from the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, drought conditions are playing havoc with the ducks that nest up in the northern part of our country, particular in the Canadian regions.

That's the point I don't like. If we run true to form, there will be no less than 500 ducks on the Guilford swamp area and the Salem reservoir next hunting season. While we may have what we consider a lot of ducks, we will no doubt feel the effects of bag limits that could be cut down in order to protect the possible shortages of ducks.

This is only logical reasoning because our ducks fly south, most of them, and they need protection where ever they go.

Otherwise, if we thought we should keep the same bag limits regardless of the shortages in other states, and this was allowed, we would be acting anything but like conservationists should.

Understand, though, I am not predicting what the bag limits will be. That is a matter which will be determined by the waterfowl technicians on both the state and federal level.

Machinists' Strike Idles Findlay Plant

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP)—A strike by Local 1194 of the International Assn. of Machinists idled the Findlay plant of Garwood Industries, Inc., today. The plant produces huge earth-moving equipment.

Some of the men began walking out shortly after 9:30 p.m. Tuesday. By the 7 a.m. shift today, all 385 workers in the union's jurisdiction were on strike. Pickets are allowing supervisory personnel and office workers to enter the plant. The plant has a total work force of about 500.

Union members have been working without a contract since June 1. Negotiations recently broke down. A union spokesman said wages and fringe benefits are at issue.

Quarterback Jerry Wilkinson of Wyoming has quit football and will concentrate on pitching a baseball.

Grace U.P. Wins 3rd Straight Tilt

Grace U.P. notched its third straight victory with a 14-2 win over Chester Christian Tuesday in the YMCA-Church League.

The Dawson brothers, Al and Bob, along with Bill Hulme, led the attack with three hits each. Al Dawson collected a home run and two singles. Hulme collected a single, double and triple.

Six led the losers with two safeties. Tice was the winning hurler and struck out seven.

Jim Cross and Herm Tranter stroked home runs to lead Calvary Methodist to a 11-3 victory over Calcutta U. P.

UC Decision Delayed On Phone Hike Bid

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Utilities Commission is expected to decide in the next month or so whether to grant a rate increase sought by Eastern Telephone Service Co.

Eastern wants about $127,000 more a year. The company serves Ashtabula, Athens, Morgan, Perry, Trumbull and Washington counties.

Hearings on the application closed April 30, but commission consideration of the matter was delayed until the company submitted data on expected revenue from long distance calls on its equipment, and accounting procedures for interest during construction.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Temperatures are expected to average from normal to 3 degrees below normal. Normal high 81 north, 83 south. Normal low 58-62. Little change through Sunday, warmer Monday. Scattered showers likely Sunday or Monday totaling one-quarter inch or less.

Firestone Sales, Net Income Hit New High

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Sales and net income of the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. for the six months ended April 30 were the highest recorded in a first six-month period in the company's history.

Most of Firestone's domestic plants were closed by a strike for two weeks during the period. The strike started April 16 and ended last Friday.

Firestone reported Tuesday that net sales for the six months totaled $568,158,972, compared with $490,854,806 in the corresponding period of the previous year.

Net income amounted to $29,940,606, equal to $3.47 a share, compared with $21,264,682, or $2.52 a share, for the half year to April 30, 1958.

Newark's Voters Reject Tax For Bridges' Repair

NEWARK, Ohio (AP)—The problem of raising money to repair four aging, flood-damaged bridges here is back in City Council's hands today.

By an overwhelming vote, Newark voters turned thumbs down Tuesday on a new tax for the work.

The vote on a three-mill, two-year property tax was 4,565 against, 1,255 for.

All four bridges span the Licking River. All four were damaged in the January and February floods, and three closed down for a while.

Councilman William Buchanan said a new effort will probably be made to enact a 1 per cent city income tax ordinance, or to place the income tax proposal on next November's ballot by petition. The last time the income tax ordinance came before council it was defeated 5-4.

Youth Gives Police Chase Through Sewers

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — A handcuffed youth broke away from police and ducked into a culvert for a three-hour chase through a maze of storm sewers Tuesday.

John Soares, 19, of Oakland, was recaptured when he emerged, covered with muck and exhausted.

More than 50 officers guarded manholes in the area or joined the underground force while the pursuit was on.

Soares is charged with statuory rape of a 17-year-old girl from nearby Hayward.

At 95.06 Of Capacity

CLEVELAND (AP)—The M. A. Hanna Co. reported Tuesday night that the Great Lakes ore fleet was operating at 95.06 per cent of capacity Monday. In commission on that day were 231 of the 243 boats in the American bulk fleet.

Firestone Sales, Net Income Hit New High

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Sales and net income of the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. for the six months ended April 30 were the highest recorded in a first six-month period in the company's history.

Most of Firestone's domestic plants were closed by a strike for two weeks during the period. The strike started April 16 and ended last Friday.

Firestone reported Tuesday that net sales for the six months totaled $568,158,972, compared with $490,854,806 in the corresponding period of the previous year.

Net income amounted to $29,940,606, equal to $3.47 a share, compared with $21,264,682, or $2.52 a share, for the half year to April 30, 1958.

Tariff Official Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. James H. Hibben, 62, chief of the chemical division of the U.S. Tariff Commission, died Tuesday of injuries suffered in a fall at his home in McLean, Va.

Grace U.P. Wins 3rd Straight Tilt

Grace U.P. notched its third straight victory with a 14-2 win over Chester Christian Tuesday in the YMCA-Church League.

The Dawson brothers, Al and Bob, along with Bill Hulme, led the attack with three hits each. Al Dawson collected a home run and two singles. Hulme collected a single, double and triple.

Six led the losers with two safeties. Tice was the winning hurler and struck out seven.

Jim Cross and Herm Tranter stroked home runs to lead Calvary Methodist to a 11-3 victory over Calcutta U. P.

UC Decision Delayed On Phone Hike Bid

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Utilities Commission is expected to decide in the next month or so whether to grant a rate increase sought by Eastern Telephone Service Co.

Eastern wants about $127,000 more a year. The company serves Ashtabula, Athens, Morgan, Perry, Trumbull and Washington counties.

Hearings on the application closed April 30, but commission consideration of the matter was delayed until the company submitted data on expected revenue from long distance calls on its equipment, and accounting procedures for interest during construction.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Temperatures are expected to average from normal to 3 degrees below normal. Normal high 81 north, 83 south. Normal low 58-62. Little change through Sunday, warmer Monday. Scattered showers likely Sunday or Monday totaling one-quarter inch or less.

Newark's Voters Reject Tax For Bridges' Repair

NEWARK, Ohio (AP)—The problem of raising money to repair four aging, flood-damaged bridges here is back in City Council's hands today.

By an overwhelming vote, Newark voters turned thumbs down Tuesday on a new tax for the work.

The vote on a three-mill, two-year property tax was 4,565 against, 1,255 for.

All four bridges span the Licking River. All four were damaged in the January and February floods, and three closed down for a while.

Councilman William Buchanan said a new effort will probably be made to enact a 1 per cent city income tax ordinance, or to place the income tax proposal on next November's ballot by petition. The last time the income tax ordinance came before council it was defeated 5-4.

Youth Gives Police Chase Through Sewers

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — A handcuffed youth broke away from police and ducked into a culvert for a three-hour chase through a maze of storm sewers Tuesday.

John Soares, 19, of Oakland, was recaptured when he emerged, covered with muck and exhausted.

More than 50 officers guarded manholes in the area or joined the underground force while the pursuit was on.

Soares is charged with statuory rape of a 17-year-old girl from nearby Hayward.

At 95.06 Of Capacity

CLEVELAND (AP)—The M. A. Hanna Co. reported Tuesday night that the Great Lakes ore fleet was operating at 95.06 per cent of capacity Monday. In commission on that day were 231 of the 243 boats in the American bulk fleet.

Library's New Books Range From Golf To Altar Etiquette

During the summer months it is an even bet that small groups of men gathered together of an evening will be discussing either the fine points of baseball or golf and their female counterparts will be recalling the details of the latest wedding attended.

The Carnegie Library's new book shelf will have something for both men and women, according to Miss Frances Jones, librarian.

"A Round of Golf With Tommy Armour" tells how to use brains instead of muscle to slice a few points off the score. John Durant has revised and enlarged his "Story of Baseball" to include the 1958 series.

Barbara Wilson, of the women's feature staff of the New York Herald Tribune has edited a "Complete Book of Engagement and Wedding Etiquette." The newspaper has for many years sponsored a Bride's School which has supplied most of the material for the books. It is unique in that it gives the order of the religious ceremony in all major faiths.

Other handbooks of interest during warm weather are Michael Verney's "Complete Amateur Boat Building" and Lehman Engel's "Planning and Producing the Musical Show."

Handbooks with year-round value are a newly revised "Hoyle for All Important Games," Robert U. Cooper's "Investments for Professional People," and Steward Hyde's "Television and Radio Announcing." The author of this latter volume is a professor of broadcasting at San Francisco College and an editor of 12 drama articles in Encyclopedia Britannica.

As this background indicates, he approaches his subject in a scholarly way, but he also goes into the technicalities of operating transcription mechanisms such as cueing up a record to avoid distortions.

Biographies of two highly dramatic women can afford some fun for those who insist that life is as strange as fiction. Aimee Semple McPherson, who stole the headlines for months with her reported kidnaping, is the subject of "The Vanishing Evangelist." The author, Lately Thomas, approaches his subject quite objectively.

The second volume is called "Kyra," the daughter of a Russian prince. She was a compelling beauty who acquired in rapid succession four husbands back in the days when marriage and divorce were only a paper routine in Russia. This story will both intrigue and shock.

Preston Schoyer of the Pittsburgh family of the same name has written another novel laid in the Orient—"The Typhoon's Eye." It takes its name from the apparent calmness of Hong Kong during Asia's stormy upheavals. An art dealer and a wealthy widow from Ohio figure prominently in the plot. In contrast is Frank Swinnerton's novel, "A Tigress In the Village."

Who-dunnit fans will welcome Constance Cornish's "Dead of Winter" and George Bagby's "The Real Gone Goose."

Literary novelties will be found in three new novels of short stories: Elizabeth Taylor's "The Blush and Other Stories," the O'Henry Award 1959 "Prize Stories," and a recently translated volume of Luigi Pirandello's "Short Stories."

James Costigan has dedicated his current volume of plays to Julie Harris, who starred in them both, "The Little Moon of Alban" and "A Wind from the South."

Pathologist To Testify In Klumpp Trial

CINCINNATI (AP)—Dr. Frank Cleveland, expected to be a controversial witness in Edythe Klumpp's murder trial, may be called to testify today.

And defense attorney William F. Hopkins said his cross-examination of Dr. Cleveland might last "anywhere from 10 minutes to 12 hours."

Hamilton County Prosecutor C. Watson Hover wasn't saying definitely that Dr. Cleveland would testify today, but it was learned he had been summoned and would be available.

Dr. Cleveland is the county pathologist. He twice examined the charred body of Mrs. Louise Bergen, 32, the woman Mrs. Klumpp is accused of killing in a love triangle.

The state claims Mrs. Klumpp, blonde, 41-year-old divorcee, killed Mrs. Bergen Oct. 30 so she could marry Mrs. Bergen's estranged husband, William, and that she burned the body the next day at Lake Cowan in nearby Clinton County.

Dr. Cleveland first said Mrs. Bergen apparently died of blows on the head, but might have been alive when her body was set afire. Later, Mrs. Klumpp was arrested and made a statement that Mrs. Bergen was shot as they grappled for a gun.

After a second examination, Dr. Cleveland said he found some evidence of a bullet wound, but said again the woman had suffered skull fractures.

In his opening statement to the jury Monday, Hopkins contended the reason for the second autopsy "was the mistakes made in the first one." He called the autopsies "carelessly performed."

Other witnesses on the available list today include Robert Klumpp, divorced husband of Mrs. Klumpp; Clarence Bowen, a filling station attendant, and Fred Haste of suburban Reading.

Haste may be a key witness in the state's contention that Mrs. Klumpp was well acquainted with the secluded dead end street in Caldwell Park where the shooting took place.

In his opening statement Monday, Assistant County Prosecutor Harry C. Schoettmer made brief mention that Mrs. Klumpp had been to the spot many times "with Fred Haste."

Bowen is the teen-age filling station attendant the state claims sold Mrs. Klumpp the gasoline she used to burn Mrs. Bergen's body.

The state ran through 13 witnesses Tuesday in such rapid order that court was adjourned an hour early. Hover had no other witnesses available to testify at that time.

Most of the testimony established the facts surrounding the discovery and identification of Mrs. Bergen's body.

Mail Meant For Egypt Winds Up In Illinois

CAIRO, Ill. (AP) — Mail meant for Shepheard's Hotel in Cairo, Egypt, was missent to Earl Shepherd's hotel in Cairo, Ill.

Shepherd said the letter was addressed to Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Nelson, care of Shepheard's Hotel, Cairo, UAR, from Jessie L. Hamil, American Embassy, Jedda, Saudi Arabia.

Shepherd said an Arab mail clerk apparently mistook UAR (United Arab Republic) for USA. Shepherd redirected the letter to Egypt.

Boys State Sets Good Example On Handling Unemployment

ATHENS, OHIO (AP)—Ohio and the rest of the nation can take a cue from Buckeye Boys State on handling the unemployment situation.

Alan Schaffer of Warren, the new administrator of unemployment compensation at the 10-day school in self-government, reported Tuesday that unemployment is at a record low among the more than 1,000 boys registered.

He estimated that fewer than one per cent of the Boys State citizens are jobless. And he noted that as many as 20 positions are waiting to be filled by boys "qualified in the fields of law, banking and clerking."

It's all make-believe government, of course, at this annual American Legion-sponsored exercise on the Ohio University campus here. But the boys do everything with an air of reality, even to the governor reporting an attempted assassination.

Gov. Gary Richetto of Warren claimed an attempt had been made on his life by two citizens, one a former rival for the gubernatorial nomination. The Boys State Highway Patrol arrested two suspects.

In legislative matters, Richetto asked the Senate to table a resolution urging balloting privileges for 18-year-olds.

The Senate, however, disregarded his advice and defeated the resolution, 22-18. It had been supported by the platforms of both boys state political parties and their leaders.

The editor of the Boys State daily newspaper, Mike Smithson of Middletown, found himself with a problem to solve: How to get his reporters across a turnpike which will run in front of his office, effective today.

4 Adults, Children Injured In Falls

Four adults and youngsters hurt in falls were treated at City Hospital Monday, along with a woman injured at home.

Rebecca Turner, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Turner of Riley Ave., suffered a laceration of the inside of the cheek in a fall at a playground.

Louis Provost of Riverview St. was treated for abrasions of the face and nose suffered in a fall.

Madeline Bloor of Dresden Ave. received a possible fracture of the left foot in a fall at Washington and 5th Sts.

Walter Harris of Pittsburgh suffered a possible fracture of the wrist in a fall on May St.

Mrs. Roberta Lucas, 711 Sophia St., was treated for a cut of the finger received at home.

2 Girls Get Degrees From Western Reserve

Miss Mary Sue Lang, daughter of Atty. and Mrs. Francis H. Lang of Highland Colony, and Miss Dorothy Irene Esenwein, daughter of Mrs. Bertha Esenwein of New Waterford, received degrees today at commencement exercises at Western Reserve University in Cleveland.

Miss Lang received a master of arts degree from the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences. She received her bachelor of fine arts degree from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1957. Miss Esenwein was awarded a bachelor of science degree in nursing from the Frances Payne Bolton School of Nursing.

Students To Have Easy Way To Recall Classes

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — University of Wisconsin engineering students who studied under Prof. Joseph D. Livermore have an easy way to recall those class days.

Livermore, who is retiring this year, has taken photographs of his classes for nearly 25 years, and has given each of the students a copy of their class pictures.

Curtis Smith Cumberland's New Principal

A Follansbee man with 32 years of school administration experience in West Virginia is the new principal of New Cumberland High School.

Curtis P. Smith, 54, was employed for the post Monday night by the Hancock County Board of Education as a successor to C. D. Henderson, who retired last month.

The board also hired an assistant principal and employed seven new teachers for the county system.

Smith's experience as principal has included posts at five different high schools in the state since his graduation from Marshall College in Huntington in 1927.

His first was at Cottageville High School in Jackson County, where he served for 11 years. He then was principal for 3 years at George Washington Junior High in Putnam County, spent 13 years as principal at Smithfield High School in Wetzel County, 3 years at Sherman High in Boone County and the past 2 years at Colliers Junior High in Brooke County.

He holds a master's degree from Ohio State University at Columbus and worked towards a doctorate at the University of Indiana.

He is past district governor of the Lions Club, now an international councilor of Lions, a Master Mason, past grand patron of the Order of Eastern Star and a member of the Methodist Church.

He has two daughters, one a senior at West Virginia University and the other a senior in Follansbee High School. He taught chemistry while still attending Marshall College.

Hired as assistant principal was Joseph Endry, presently a teacher in New Cumberland High School.

New teachers hired and their subject classifications are:

Margaret Ann Stanley, English, and Miss Mary Marlene Kokochak, English and speech; Mrs. Mary Joretta, Ann Drasik, Miss Sue Bell Johnson, and Mrs. Patricia M. Driscoll, elementary, and Robert H. Johnston, science.

The resignation of Hugh Manley, teacher and assistant football coach at Weir High School for the past three years, was accepted.

J. E. Johnson was hired as a janitor for New Cumberland High School to succeed Guy Chamberlain who has retired.

The board accepted a bid of the Harry Truschel Co. of $6,000 for installing new terrazzo steps in Weir High School. Purchase of a new heavy-duty lawn mower for $482 was authorized. Its cost with the trade-in of an 8-year-old tractor mower will be $269, the board said.

Use of athletic facilities at New Cumberland was granted for a softball league of the community's churches.

The board set the next meeting for July 6. Dr. W. Dale Williams is president.

Democratic Heads Back Compromise Housing Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic leaders backed today a compromise $1,310,000,000 housing bill pruned sharply to avoid a budget-busting tag and a possible presidential veto.

Although a Senate-House conference committee has yet to work out final details, House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) and Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas passed the word they want a measure limited to a two-year program and tailored to stay within Eisenhower's new budget.

This would follow the pattern of an airport aid program cut below Eisenhower's monetary requests and cropped to two years. It is in line with the Rayburn-Johnson argument that more ambitious programs can await what they profess to regard as the certain election of a Democatic president in 1960.

Infant Girl Killed

NEWARK, Ohio (AP)—An auto crash near Granville Tuesday killed Jeanne Peterman, 7-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Peterman of Croton. The parents suffered injuries and shock. Witnesses said the Peterman car, driven by the mother, suddenly veered off Ohio 37, and plunged into a ditch.

The Great Sphinx at Gizeh, in Egypt, with the exception of its paws, is constructed of one block of stone.

Station Wagon Bids Accepted

Bids for a new station wagon are being accepted by the Board of Trustees of the Hancock County Children's Home following approval of purchase at a meeting Monday night in New Cumberland.

Cyrus Spear of Weirton, executive secretary, said the home plans to purchase a new standard shift transmission station wagon with three seats. The trade-in model is a 1956 Pontiac station wagon with three seats, the board reported.

Bids, to be received by Spear, who resides at 3724 Bright Way, Weirton, will be opened at a meeting July 20.

In other action, it was moved to have boys at the home near Pughtown be permitted to participate in a fishing contest of the County Fishermen's Club Saturday at noon at Tomlinson Run State Park. It is open to boys from 2 to 14.

The Beta Sigma Phi Sorority of Weirton donated a console hi-fidelity record player for the home, it was reported. Dave N. Thomas of Weirton, president, presided.

Crushed To Death

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Lloyd Kingery, 26, was crushed to death when a sewer ditch he was working in caved in on him Tuesday. He was dead by the time police and firemen dug him out.

4-H Club News

LISBON — Some 155 Junior and Senior 4-H members will attend the summer camp at Camp Aldersgate on Leesville Lake beginning Saturday noon, according to Don Myers, county extension agent in 4-H work.

There will be 130 juniors in camp Saturday noon until Wednesday noon when they will leave. Then 25 seniors will attend until Sunday noon.

Supervisors besides Myers will be Misses Julia Shank and Betty Hinman and Albert Pugh from the extension offices and 15 older 4-H members will serve as counselors for the junior group, Myers said.

Board To Study Ways To Guarantee Power

GREENFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Mayor Robert J. Smith has appointed a board of 12 citizens to study ways of guaranteeing this Highland County village a steady flow of power.

Greenfield over the weekend had been rationing electricity to residents—one hour off, one hour on—as the result of machinery breakdowns at the municipal power plant, starting last Friday.

The partial blackout ended Tuesday—for the time being, at least—after workers toiled around the clock to reassemble an 1,800 kilowatt generator that had been torn down for a regular maintenance check.

Astabula Invites 4 Civic Officials To Seaway Event

Four municipal and Chamber of Commerce officials have been invited to participate in the St. Lawrence Seaway celebration June 24 in Ashtabula.

Attending from East Liverpool will be Mayor Fred P. Lawrence, Atty. Francis H. Lang, president of the Lake Erie-Ohio River Highway Association, Alvin Babb, vice president, and E. R. Chandler, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce.

T. Fred Edwards, president, was invited but will be unable to attend.

Rep. Clarence L. Wetzel of Lisbon also has been invited.

The celebration will include an industrial tour, a parade, an inspection of four U. S. Navy ships tied up in the port, and a tour of the harbor.

The celebration will continue for five days.

The Navy ships are the first of their size and complement on the Great Lakes and are part of the Navy's "Operation Inland Seas" which is touring the Great Lakes this summer.

The attack transport, USS Cambria, and the landing ship dock, USS Donner, will be part of the Ashtabula inspection. They are two of the largest ships making the tour.

Calcimined walls can be cleaned by using baking soda and a damp cloth.

Grace Church Plans Program For School

The closing program for the Vacation Bible School of the Grace United Presbyterian Church will be held Thursday night at 7:30.

Using the theme, "Following Jesus," each class will present a portion of the program. An offering will be received to help defray Bible School expenses.

Handwork and many crafts will be exhibited following the program.

The children will meet at the church Friday morning at 9:30 for a picnic at Thompson Park. The picnic will end at noon.

The school directed by Mrs. Louise Dotson had an enrollment of 88.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Our 15-year-old daughter is up in her room crying. Her dad said she couldn't go to the DeMolay dance unless he drove her and her date to and from the hall.

My husband has a deadly fear of teen-agers in automobiles. Whenever there's a picture in the newspaper of a horrible accident he calls it to her attention. Linda says she'd rather not go than agree to such conditions.

Her date for the dance is 17. He has a driver's license and is a fine boy. He doesn't own a car but drives the family sedan once a week. So far as I know he's never had an accident or a ticket for a traffic violation.

Please, Ann, can you say something on this vital subject?—MOM.

Dear Mom: There's as much difference between teen-agers as varieties of fish in the sea. Some teen-agers are expert drivers and I'd rather get into a car with one of them than my 73-year-old uncle who has no vision in one eye and a dead battery in his hearing aid.

Your husband someday must trust someone with the safety of his precious daughter, so he might as well brace himself for the jolt.

No 17-year-old boy in his right mind would let his date's father drive him to and from a dance. Such a stipulation will only make it rough on Linda. I suggest Dad check on the driving record of the individual and not bum-rap all teen-age boys and label them "Monsters of the Road."

Canary Brain

Dear Ann: My wife thinks she can sing. She took a few lessons before we were married but I can't see that they did her any good.

I'm perfectly willing to have her sing around the house but when she takes her music to the homes of friends, I think this is going too far.

Last week she put on an unsolicited musicale at the home of a fellow I work with. Their dog started to cry and it sounded sort of like a duet. Everyone laughed. It was funny but she didn't see the humor. She insisted that the dog be taken out of the room and then she went on for another half hour.

I'm afraid she's going to keep on singing unless I tell her she's imposing on people. I hate to hurt her feelings. We've been married less than a year. What do you say? —RUDY.

Dear Rudy: The things our best friends won't tell us — a close relative should. Do your wife a big favor and tell her frankly that she shouldn't sing for friends unless they BEG her.

Flown From Nest Egg

Dear Ann: Do you think parents owe it to their children to make a will which leaves an equal amount to all?

One of our sons went over to his in-laws' side the day he got married. His wife never cared for us and she let us know it in many ways.

Although they live right in this city we never see or hear from them unless someone in the family gets married or dies. This has been going on for 11 years. We are not the type of people to push ourselves, so I stopped inviting them over when they refused three Sunday invitations in a row.

Now my husband and I are in our late 60s and thinking about making a will. Do you feel this son is entitled to share equally with his brothers and sisters who always have treated us well? We are not millionaries but we own good property and there's more there than any of them think. — SHUNNED PARENTS.

Calorie Measure Proves Dieter's Friend

Counting calories is a satisfactory way of reducing — you know exactly where you stand. On 1,000 to 1,200 calories a day, you can lose two pounds a week. One successful dieter has written:

Ida Jean Kain

"I have found over the years that the only way I can reduce is by counting calories. I think I have tried every kind of diet ever thought up. I would reduce, but eventually lost interest and gained back all the pounds. I have often wished that all of our packaged and canned foods would include the number of calories per serving or contents on each and every label."

It would be convenient if calories were stated. However, manufacturers are wary of stating calories for fear this information might be misinterpreted.

FOR EXAMPLE, if a package gives the calorie content, the public might not be able to discern that the calories in a certain product were reasonably low as compared to the calories in many other foods.

On foods offered specifically for use in the control of weight, or some other specialized need, the law requires that calories be listed. In these cases, not only must total calories be listed, but also the amount of protein, fat, carbohydrates, salt, etc.

In judging calorie values, be alert to weights when calories are specified. If a low calorie cookie is labelled at 10 calories per cookie, check on the weight. It might be only half the weight of another cookie that contains 14 calories. Don't be fooled calorie-wise.

By the way, if you wish to know the exact calorie content of any particular product, you can get this information by writing directly to the manufacturer, using the address on the package.

Look for "bargain calories." The term calories refers only to fuel content, not to the quality of the nutrients. In other words, calories give no indication of the nutrient value provided.

When calories must be lessened, the quality of total calories included in menus becomes more important. All foods furnish calories, but it is the protective foods that are rich sources of the essential nutrients. Fortunately, foods high in protection — lean meat, fish and fowl, eggs, cottage cheese, skim milk and buttermilk, green and yellow vegetables and fruits —are not high in calories.

A CALIFORNIAN writes: "This is the first time in 30 years that I am losing weight without pills. I started to eat your protective way last June; weight 168½ pounds for 4 feet 11, age 52.

To date, I weigh 136 pounds. It took me eight months to get into the good habit of eating properly. Your way of eating leaves no room for hunger."

Send a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for "Revised Calorie Chart." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Post card requests cannot be answered.

Panhandle BPW Sets Charter Rite

The Panhandle Business & Professional Women's Club will receive its initial charter at a dinner Monday night at 7 in the Masonic Temple in Chester.

Presentation will be made by Mrs. Alberta Batson of Parkersburg, state president.

Guest speaker will be Miss Marjorie Myers of Wheeling, state second vice president, who will talk on "Club Federation."

Mrs. Katherine Fugate of Weirton will serve as installing officer. Mrs. Martha Hapach will be seated as president.

Woman Makes Costly Swing At Fighting Dogs

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Mrs. Margaret Messinger, 61, swung her large shopping purse at fighting dogs, one of them her own.

That broke up the fight but when Mrs. Messinger got home she found $21.40 was gone from the purse. It apparently flew out when she swung at the dogs.

Explorers Group Hears 5 On Trip To Schoenbrunn

A report on a trip to the reconstructed Schoenbrunn Village near New Philadelphia by five members was heard at a meeting of the Aboriginal Explorer's Club Monday night at the home of Jim Woodrow of Wellsville.

Making the trip were Harold A. Dawson, William B. Patterson, Harry R. 'Cline, Jim Monte and Woodrow. The village was founded in 1772 by Moravian missionaries and a band of Christian Indians.

Dawson, president, gave the report. Preceding the meeting, members worked on the excavation of a rock shelter near the Woodrow home. Arrowheads, pieces of pottery and bone were uncovered.

Dawson screened slides on other trips. Richard S. Thompson, secretary, screened color slides of the excavation of an Indian burial mound discovered near Yellow Creek by Ray Simoni of Smiths Ferry.

It was reported the club has received an invitation to attend the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Archaeology Society June 27 at the Carnegie Museum in Pittsburgh.

Members of the club will attend a meeting of the Panhandle Chapter Archaeological Society tonight at the College of Steubenville. A report will be heard on an unusual burial site discovered at Shippingport.

Dick Mason of Lisbon displayed stone cups. Other members displayed arrowheads, pottery and stone hammers.

The next meeting will be June 29 with Mason.

Tavern Owner Finds Well-Aged Moonshine

MILWAUKEE (AP) — A newly-discovered relic of the prohibition era now decorates the back bar of Salvatore John's Tavern.

Workmen remodeling the place found a 4-foot metal tank fitted neatly into a wall.

John, who leased the tavern two years ago, had no idea how it got there. But inspection of the tank disclosed that it contained five gallons of truly ancient moonshine and apparently had been cached there about 35 years ago.

Beaver Woman Again Heads TB Group's Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Boal of Beaver has been re-elected president of Beaver County Tuberculosis Auxiliary, formerly known as the auxiliary to Beaver County Sanatorium.

Miss Boal, former superintendent of the sanatorium, is completing her second term.

Other officers installed were Mrs. E. J. Harn of Beaver, vice president; Mrs. Charles J. Renner of Monaca, secretary, and Elma C. Graham of Rochester, treasurer.

The club, founded in 1924, meets every 3 months and will convene in September. Originally, the club was formed to aid patients at Beaver County Sanatorium.

Since the sanatorium was closed, members have been directing their efforts to help the 40 county patients in Cresson, 5 in Mt. Alto and 19 at Deshon hospitals.

Clarification Seen Needed On Blue Law Decree

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Natural Resources Director Herbert B. Eagon says some clarification is needed of Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's decree that all state parks and fairs must abide by Ohio's blue laws.

DiSalle has said that the blue laws—which generally ban all but necessary work on Sundays—apply to concession stands at state parks and fairs.

Eagon asks if this means that hotels and dining lodges operated by concessionaires at state parks must also close Sundays.

Courts have held that hotels and eating places are considered businesses of necessity and thus are exempted from blue laws.

But Eagon apparently feels that DiSalle's decree on concession operations should specify if all or only certain park concessions are affected by the blue laws.

The director asked his department's chief counsel Tuesday to prepare a detailed report on the situation.

Mercer County's Jail Open Again On 'Full-Time'

CELINA, Ohio (AP) — Sheriff Bruce Barber has opened the Mercer County jail on a full-time basis again.

Operations at the jail were curtailed Tuesday when Barber claimed he did not have enough money to run the jail. He released four prisoners, three under sentence for drunk driving, the fourth for manslaughter.

Contempt of court charges were brought against the sheriff Tuesday. He was cited for disobeying a court order when he released the manslaughter prisoner.

Following a hearing on the charge, Barber agreed to run the jail if he could get a trial sometime after July 5. Trial was set for July 9.

Barber then rehired a deputy laid off for lack of funds. He also hired another deputy to "run the jail in a proper manner."

The manslaughter prisoner will be re-jailed the sheriff said. He added that he will again accept prisoners from the court.

How Can I? ? ?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I get rid of chiggers on the lawn and bushes?

A. Chiggers on the bushes can be destroyed by the liberal use of sulphur, applied with a dust gun. On the lawn, of course, the chiggers will disappear if the grass is kept cut.

Q. How can I avoid warping of aluminum pans?

A. Aluminum cooking pans are often warped out of shape by the practice of putting cold water into them while they are still hot.

Q. How can I avoid moist hands when ironing?

A. Talcum powder dusted frequently over the hands while ironing prevents them from becoming moist, sore, and tired.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY MEYERS

Nursery School Helps Children

Only a small number of children have the advantage of a nursery school. A good nursery school provides opportunity for the child, two three or four, to develop normally with other children of his age. As Miss Margaret Fletcher, long-time head of the nursery school of the University of Toronto, points out in her recent book, published by University of Toronto Press, the object of the nursery school is the emergence of a person who "faces up to life," is aware and respectful of the rights of others and himself, makes decisions about what he wants to do and tries to do it.

By Garry Meyers

He learns to accept the consequences of his own decisions. He weathers disappointment when he must and enjoys success when it comes.

—:—

THE PRESCHOOLER, whether in nursery school or not, must learn to help himself in such routine matters as dressing, feeding, toileting and washing. Also he must learn to get along with other children,, to exchange ideas and find proper ways of amusement.

A nursery school is not a parking place.

Mothers may spend time there learning from the teacher how to get best results from a minimum of obvious direction and a maximum of skill. This sets the stage for the youngsters to get wholesome experience at fun, often creative fun, with other children.

These mothers see the ways in which children in the nursery school learn to wait on themselves and how these children practice in making judgments and decisions.

Several weeks ago I spent a forenoon in a private nursery school.

—:—

AT THE BRIEF play periods there was loud shouting, but I heard no screaming or crying and, more amazing, I saw no pushing, pulling, hitting or fighting.

I saw four-year-olds mopping up paints from the linoleum floor after using them freely. I saw them putting on their own coats.

They used a plan any mother might teach at home. The child spread out his coat with its open arms on the floor. With the neck of the coat facing him, he stuck his hands into the sleeves, pitched the coat over his head and soon it was on.

In the home, a mother may not have all the space and materials available that are found in the nursery school. However, she can learn to imitate most of the good ways of the nursery school teacher —especially her quiet voice and manner and her skill in making positive suggestions that work.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Our 15-year-old daughter is up in her room crying. Her dad said she couldn't go to the DeMolay dance unless he drove her and her date to and from the hall.

My husband has a deadly fear of teen-agers in automobiles. Whenever there's a picture in the newspaper of a horrible accident he calls it to her attention. Linda says she'd rather not go than agree to such conditions.

Her date for the dance is 17. He has a driver's license and is a fine boy. He doesn't own a car but drives the family sedan once a week. So far as I know he's never had an accident or a ticket for a traffic violation.

Please, Ann, can you say something on this vital subject?—MOM.

Dear Mom: There's as much difference between teen-agers as varieties of fish in the sea. Some teen-agers are expert drivers and I'd rather get into a car with one of them than my 73-year-old uncle who has no vision in one eye and a dead battery in his hearing aid.

Your husband someday must trust someone with the safety of his precious daughter, so he might as well brace himself for the jolt.

No 17-year-old boy in his right mind would let his date's father drive him to and from a dance. Such a stipulation will only make it rough on Linda. I suggest Dad check on the driving record of the individual and not bum-rap all teen-age boys and label them "Monsters of the Road."

Canary Brain

Dear Ann: My wife thinks she can sing. She took a few lessons before we were married but I can't see that they did her any good.

I'm perfectly willing to have her sing around the house but when she takes her music to the homes of friends, I think this is going too far.

Last week she put on an unsolicited musicale at the home of a fellow I work with. Their dog started to cry and it sounded sort of like a duet. Everyone laughed. It was funny but she didn't see the humor. She insisted that the dog be taken out of the room and then she went on for another half hour.

I'm afraid she's going to keep on singing unless I tell her she's imposing on people. I hate to hurt her feelings. We've been married less than a year. What do you say? —RUDY.

Dear Rudy: The things our best friends won't tell us — a close relative should. Do your wife a big favor and tell her frankly that she shouldn't sing for friends unless they BEG her.

One of our sons went over to his in-laws' side the day he got married. His wife never cared for us and she let us know it in many ways.

Although they live right in this city we never see or hear from them unless someone in the family gets married or dies. This has been going on for 11 years. We are not the type of people to push ourselves, so I stopped inviting them over when they refused three Sunday invitations in a row.

Now my husband and I are in our late 60s and thinking about making a will. Do you feel this son is entitled to share equally with his brothers and sisters who always have treated us well? We are not millionaries but we own good property and there's more there than any of them think. —SHUNNED PARENTS.

He learns to accept the consequences of his own decisions. He weathers disappointment when he must and enjoys success when it comes.

THE PRESCHOOLER, whether in nursery school or not, must learn to help himself in such routine matters as dressing, feeding, toileting and washing. Also he must learn to get along with other children,, to exchange ideas and find proper ways of amusement.

A nursery school is not a parking place.

Mothers may spend time there learning from the teacher how to get best results from a minimum of obvious direction and a maximum of skill. This sets the stage for the youngsters to get wholesome experience at fun, often creative fun, with other children.

These mothers see the ways in which children in the nursery school learn to wait on themselves and how these children practice in making judgments and decisions.

Several weeks ago I spent a forenoon in a private nursery school.

—:—

AT THE BRIEF play periods there was loud shouting, but I heard no screaming or crying and, more amazing, I saw no pushing, pulling, hitting or fighting.

I saw four-year-olds mopping up paints from the linoleum floor after using them freely. I saw them putting on their own coats.

They used a plan any mother might teach at home. The child spread out his coat with its open arms on the floor. With the neck of the coat facing him, he stuck his hands into the sleeves, pitched the coat over his head and soon it was on.

In the home, a mother may not have all the space and materials available that are found in the nursery school. However, she can learn to imitate most of the good ways of the nursery school teacher —especially her quiet voice and manner and her skill in making positive suggestions that work.

My bulletins, "Tot Learning to Be Sociable" and "Self-Reliance," may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Betsy Rawls, winner of the Triangle Round Robin, had only one three-putt green during her five rounds in the Summit, N. J., tournament.

Rotary Movie Cites Club's Foundation

The International understanding and harmony brought about by sponsored youth projects with foreign nations was emphasized in a film screened for the Rotary Club Tuesday in the Travelers Hotel.

Produced by Rotary International, the 25-minute black and white film told the story of Rotary and its growth throughout the world, underscoring the organization's theme of "Service Above Self."

Entitled "The Great Adventure," the film was made in connection with Rotary's 50th anniversary and emphasized the Rotary Foundation.

The principal characters were played by Edward Arnold, who portrayed a Rotary Club member, and Jim Backus of "Mr. Magoo" fame who learned of Rotary's purpose through a visit to Arnold's home.

The cast included actors portraying foreign students in America from Japan, South America, India and Australia. Each explained what Rotary meant and "how their home towns became better through a Rotary sponsored program.

C. Major Lampman was program chairman for Harry W. Thiemecke, who is the local Rotary Foundation committee chairman.

Dean Wilhelm, president, presided and announced that a report would be presented June 30 of the international convention held this month in New York City. Charles Taylor, vice president, also attended.

Guests included four from Midland and Alexander C. Hauck, new sales representative from the Globe Brick Co.

Memorial To Carrier Enterprise Planned

NEWPORT NEWS, Va. (AP) — Employes of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Co. plan to raise $15,000 to complete Enterprise Tower, a memorial to the big aircraft carrier which will dominate the new Navy-Marine Corps Stadium at the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md.

The Enterprise was built here in the 1930's, was engaged in every major action in the Pacific except one, and earned 20 battle stars.

George Reeves 'Superman' To TV Fans—Not To Himself

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Georg Reeves was Superman to millions of television fans—but not to him self.

The husky 45-year-old actor committed suicide Tuesday moments after his fiancee predicted in jest: "He's going to shoot himself."

Reeves, a jut-jawed natural for the role of Superman, was selected to portray the cape-flying marvel nine years ago.

Television filming of the Superman series stopped a year and a half ago with 105 episodes completed.

Friends said the series brought Reeves financial security (he was paid for each TV showing) and some fame—but not fulfillment as an actor.

Reeves felt doomed to play Superman. He once explained why he couldn't get other roles: "It's like Hopalong Cassidy trying to get an acting job in white tie and tails."

Why did he shoot himself?

Lenore Lemmon, his fiancee said: "Because he was known as Superman. He couldn't get a job.

"That combined with the fact that a woman (a former girl friend) never got off his back.

"I think everything just kind of swooped down on a very sensitive man."

Police Sgt. V. A. Peterson related the tragic end of Reeves' 27-year dramatic career.

Reeves and his house guests — Miss Lemmon, 35, an erstwhile New York cafe society figure, and writer Robert Condon, 45, retired to their respective bedrooms late Monday night. They were awakened about 2:30 a.m. by two friends, William Bliss and Mrs. R. P. Van Ronkel. Reeves argued with Bliss over the lateness of the hour, then went upstairs.

Miss Lemmon blurted: "He's going to shoot himself." A noise was heard upstairs. She continued, inexplicably: "He's opening a drawer to get the gun." A shot was heard. "See there — I told you!" she exclaimed.

They found Reeves' nude body on his bed, a bullet in his temple.

A few drops of turpentine will soften shoe polish that has dried and hardened in its containers.

Versatile 'Brains' Are Given 'Nicknames'

EATONTOWN, N. J. (AP) — Electronic data processing machines at the Signal Corps' research and development laboratories here have been given nicknames.

One is called "the dealer" and is a whiz at dealing, playing and winning blackjack.

Another computer is dubbed "the wise guy." Technicians have fixed it up so that, if a man is slow in working its keyboard, it sends this message: "If you don't press my button soon, I'll start swearing.
